VOLUME XXXIX
DEDICATION

The more distant our horizons, the wider our world. To widen our horizons we must continually add new experiences to our lives, for it is through experiences that we enjoy a richer and fuller life.

To horizons we dedicate the Echo of 1952.

STEPHEN RIGGINS
President of Junior School
Student Guidance Council

The purpose of the Student Guidance Council is to help the individual who breaks the rules of the school realize his mistakes, and eventually become a better citizen of his school and his community.

To accomplish this aim the student guides turn in the name of an offending student to the council. The council in turn talks to the individual privately and offers him friendly advice. If the student continually violates the rules of the school, the council calls his parents for a conference.

The council is composed of four seniors, three juniors, and three sophomores, elected by their respective classes. Ray McCallister and Ross Wilson, the school's presidents, acted as chairmen for the council.

The guidance council has only been in existence since 1948; however, the Student Guidance System was started in 1946. Although the Guidance Council is only four years old, it has taken a great step toward more opportunities for student government.
A rousing Hello Day, during the first week of school, created a friendly atmosphere at Webster High. This was only one of the many successful activities sponsored by the Senior Student Council. The annual Football Week was recognized with an assembly, as was the annual Basketball-Wrestling Assembly. Members of the Student Council worked in the Coke Machine room and the Lost and Found. This year’s council carried on the annual parade and bonfire before the Turkey Day Game.

The Dance Carnival was also a smashing success.

Many of the paid assemblies were arranged by the Assembly Committee. The Inter-School Talent Assembly was also made possible by this committee. The two Senior School Presidents were very active in the Inter-School Student Council which provides for an exchange of ideas about student government.

Magazine Campaign Sales this year topped all other years with a sum of $8,750. The mechanics of the campaign were handled by the Student Council. Also approximately 900 activity tickets were sold. The highlight of the year was Color Day, a new event which we hope will become an annual affair. During Color Day, which was the Friday before Turkey Day, the students wore orange and black costumes. The day was terminated by an assembly, and prizes were given for the most original costume.

The bi-cameral system was used again this year. Each class elected their members to Student Council. The two councils met during the fifth hour on alternate days, and they were presided over by Ray McCallister, both Schools President, and Ross Wilson, Senior School President. However, next year there will be a one-house council due to an amendment to the constitution which was passed this year.

Klassing, Burch, Miller, Beasley, Heineman, Toft, Hudspeth, Cole, Hellmich, Carr, Carson, Maness, Mound, Wright, Klein, Hicks, Woodson, Weinischke, Kick, Lundstrom, Wright, DuMont, Wilson, Richter, Hicks, Steger, Daniel.
The success of the Junior Student Council this year is credited mainly to the excellent support and cooperation given to it by the entire Junior School.

Once a week in 316, the representatives from the 31 home rooms meet with the officers of the council to discuss the problems which confronted it and the plans for proposed activities. Steve Riggins was elected President of the group with Lynnette Beal to act as Vice-President. The position of Secretary and Treasurer was filled by Steve Brown.

The council had two main projects for the year 1951-52, both of which were successfully completed with the appreciated sponsorship of Miss Brantley.

One was the purchasing of new orange and black arm bands for all of the monitors and the other was a talent assembly for each grade with the best acts selected to reappear in a final assembly for the entire Junior School.
This year the monitors, or student guides of the Junior School, were an exceptionally able group. They were divided into two groups. One group controlled the lunch room, and was sponsored by Miss Brantley. The other group patrolled the halls at lunch time and was sponsored by Mr. Litzsinger.

The lunchroom guides consisted of 25 boys and were captained by Steve Brown, Dick Page, Jim Pender, Steve Riggins and Mike Sturges. The job of these boys was to see that no one "cut" into the lunch or candy line, and that the stools were pushed under the tables, ready for the following lunch period.

Twenty-eight boys, captained by Don Guess, and Daniel Sydow, were guides in the hall. Their job was to see that students didn't run to the cafeteria. They also kept the halls fairly quiet, so Senior School classes were not disturbed.

A disciplined and discerning mind clearly interprets the vastness of the horizon.

Juniors

The Junior Class, under the leadership of Stanley Wood, president, and Dick Clement, vice-president, spotlighted their social events of the year with the annual Junior Prom, held on April 26 in the Roberts Gym. Under the guidance of Miss Jackson, the class adviser, the prom was planned by the class cabinet, composed of the presidents from each of the ten Junior homerooms. The Cabinet was also responsible for arranging the Junior-Senior Basketball game, and a special committee was formed to aid the class in their selection of class rings.

The future of next year's seniors was by no means neglected. Together with Miss Jackson, each Junior had a conference to plan for his future education and to obtain information about various vocations. College Day was also enthusiastically supported by the Class of '53 as they brought their Junior year to a successful close.

The Sophomore witnessed a change in the fall which was completely new and different to them, for they now participated in high school activities on a much broader scale. New organizations and extra-curricular events were opened to them and they were privileged to vote in senior school elections and elect their own Student Council representatives from the class.

Freshmen

The Freshman Class this year set a high mark in leadership. Through their officers and their student council members they made many accomplishments. The freshman officers were Jim Pender, president; and Lynette Beal, vice-president.

The average ninth graders program includes English, social studies, algebra of general mathematics, and an elective such as a language, science, home economics, shop, or music.

Many extra-curricular activities are supported by the freshmen. The boys went out for "C" football and "C" basketball. This year, for the first time, the girls formed a Pep Club and elected their own cheerleaders. Also an Aviation Club was organized, which was an outgrowth of the air age program from last year.

Miss Jackson, the counselor, helped to plan programs, gave advice, and helped the class solve any problems which they faced.

— 50 —
The Eighth Graders filled the year with many social activities as well as studies, for they participated in a variety of clubs and were also included in the Sutter Dance Class.

Early this year, the class elected for its officers, Dave Fox, president, and Miriam Miller, vice-president. The home room presidents were: Barbara Baker, Dave Fox, Jim McMillian, Bill Morris, David Schattgen, David Shadday, Mary Jo Wachter, Mike Weir, Susan Werner, and Jarry Wolf. These students make up the eighth grade cabinet, headed by Miss Epps, the class counselor.

The Eighth Graders felt important at the close of this school year, for they were now ready to be admitted officially into high school. They were advised by their counselors along with their parents to help them plan for their education next fall and their future careers.

Seventh Grade

"Young Man with the Horn."

Class officers for the Seventh Grade weren’t elected this year, but the following girls and boys were elected as home room presidents: Sally Burgess, Sam Horton, John Jones, Frank Kramer, Tom McLaughlin, Barbara Heite, Robert Younger, Skip Caray, John Miller, and Don Oliver.

The new seventh grade students came from eight different grade schools and the out-of-town students came from states ranging from Connecticut to Texas. There were even some students from Guatemala, Latvia, and Hungary.

Both girls and boys participated in after-school sports. A number of boys who were interested in singing were in Boy Choir.

This year there were three hundred and twenty-five boys and girls in the seventh grade, which makes this the largest seventh grade class Webster’s ever had. Miss Webster, the class counselor, certainly had a busy job with this large group.

Activities help define our horizons by showing us the limits of our experiences.
Activities
Last January twelve students were initiated into Quill and Scroll, a national honorary fraternity of high school journalists. To become a member, each student had to fulfill four requirements: he must be scholastically in the upper third of his class; he must have done excellent work in some field of journalism; he must have been recommended by a supervisor of journalism in the high school; he must have been approved worthy of membership by a national officer.

The Webster Chapter, the Joseph Pulitzer Chapter, is a charter member of the organization, founded in 1926. Last year a pennant was awarded to our chapter in recognition of twenty-five years of membership.

Since the club had not been formed to elect officers previous to the ceremony, John Earl Craig, acting president, and Nancy Hixson, acting secretary, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Helgeson, conducted the ceremony.
The "Voice of Democracy" was clearly heard as the N. F. L. successfully began its speech program with the Democracy Radio Contest sponsored by the Clayton Junior Chamber of Commerce. Radio activities have been increasing in popularity and various other radio events were scheduled.

The Forensic Chapter at Webster has received recognition throughout the St. Louis area for outstanding work in debating. The debate team had a very successful record last year and followed in the same footsteps this year.

The Webster N. F. L. was again host to the Student Congress, which enables students from different schools to partake in discussions like the Senators and Representatives in Washington, D. C.

However, all was not work without play, for they had "social meets" as well as "speech meets", which included parties, the annual Christmas party, and picnics.

The elected officers were: Roger Parker, president; Dick Clement, vice-president; David Daniel, secretary; and Rob Stuart, treasurer.
The Webster Echo

Deadline tomorrow.

The Webster Echo had a great year this year and Webster students can well be proud of it. They published 14 issues, making two more than were published last year.

A lot of money was made from the Magazine sales and from the Activity Ticker Fund. The Paper Doll Prom, which was a huge success, also helped to raise money.

In the fall a party was given to introduce the co-editors for the year. In the spring they had a banquet to announce the co-editors for next year.

The staff met every day during the 6th hour in room 309. Although there is a lot of work involved in printing a newspaper, everyone agreed that there is also a lot of fun connected with it.

The co-editors were Nancy Wright and John Earl Craig, II. Rob Stuart was the business manager and Mrs. Helgeson was the sponsor.
Remember the candy bars you bought at the football games and after school? The money from these and many other sources enabled the Echo staff to give you a yearbook.

And do you remember the people with a slightly wild look in their eyes, frantically writing last minute articles? They were members of the literary staff, who wrote articles about the activities. The photographers, another important group, recorded life at Webster with their cameras. The job of coordinating this material fell to the co-editors. Mr. Settle, as sponsor, kept everything under control.

The Echo's big social event, the Coronation and the Coronation Ball came in March. Much work went into the organization of the court, consisting of thirty elected maids.

But the greatest concern of each person on the staff was to present to you a book which we hope you like.
Conventus Latinus

For those of us who unfortunately don’t take Latin, it appears that we are missing out on quite a lot: for besides being able to join “Conventus Latinus” and actually learning about the background of Latin, these students also had a very eventful year which was filled with many social, as well as educational meetings. Among these were the annual banquet and the Christmas Party, at which they played charades in Latin and auctioned Christmas presents. The proceeds from this auction were sent to the Farmington Orphanage, where it helped to spread the Christmas cheer to the less fortunate.

This year, the Latin Club elected for its officers: Sue Pender, president; Ray McCallister, vice-president; Ann Leutwiler, secretary; and Jean Morris, treasurer. The “Conventus Latinus” was able to accomplish many things under the assistance of Miss Farmer, who sponsored the organization.

Adams, Deming, Jodan, Ocker, Mound, MacVeagh, Everett.
Lansing, Schmitz, Haake, Vickroy, Williams, Gaines, Garvey, Stauber.
Moeblenpah, Coleman, Craig, Miller, Bader, Moeblenpah, Tesar, MacVeagh.

Once a month the attractive Latin paper, Latinus Rumor, is distributed among its many subscribers. The distribution of the paper has reached a point now where the staff not only distributes issues of Latinus Rumor to people here in school but also to many Latin clubs located in cities all over the United States.

The staff of Latinus Rumor had the honor of organizing and printing the first issue of Acta, which was the first Missouri State Latin paper. The staff did this on its own expense, which deserves an additional vote of praise.

Reading the Latin paper is a painless way to learn about Roman customs and traditions. This year an amusing column, called Cartha Marr, was added as a feature to the paper.

This year's editors were Sue Pender and Carolyn Jordan, who were under the direction of Miss Farmer.
Pan Am League

Qué es esto?

Games, food, and a treasure hunt held in Rob Stuart's back yard got the Spanish Club off to a good start this year. In order to become a member one must have taken Spanish at some time and must have sold at least one magazine subscription.

As the purpose of the Pan Am League is to promote better understanding between Spanish-speaking people and us, several people acquainted with Mexico spoke at various meetings. One of the most enjoyable meetings was the Christmas party, when the Pam Am members exchanged presents, sang Spanish Christmas carols and ate cookies and drank cokes.

The club was ably sponsored by Miss Doud and Miss Sutherland, who devoted much time and energy to making the club a success.
The French Club got an active year under way with a "rush" party for prospective members, complete with cookies and cokes. A little later the new members underwent an initiation at which each was required to present a skit or sing a song in French and to appear before the old members, who could question him on any phase of French life. After passing these requirements, each new member was awarded a French flag.

Among the other interesting activities of the French Club was a trip to the Art Museum to see French paintings. The thrill of the year occurred when the club took a trip to St. Genevieve, the oldest French settlement in Missouri, to visit the early landmarks. As sponsor, Miss Woods put much time and thought into the organization of the club's activities.
This year for the first time Hi-Y was split up into two different clubs, the Hawks Hi-Y and Hi-Y 52. The two clubs went together to sponsor the Buzz book and also they both sent representatives to the Hi-Y Model Legislature at Jefferson City. The two Webster Hi-Y clubs, along with the Kirkwood Hi-Y club cooperated in putting on the Annual Friendship dance after the traditional Thanksgiving Day football game.

The two Hi-Y clubs donated a substantial amount of money they made to the Webster Y. M. C. A. and local welfare organizations. During the year the clubs also had several parties for their members.

The officers for the Hawks Hi-Y club were: Ross Wilson, president; Bob Koester, vice-president; Jim Groetsch, secretary. For Hi-Y 52 the officers were: Paul Hooker, president; Jim Wright, vice-president; Bill Hodges, secretary.

The Sophomore Hi-Y this year was one of the biggest ever had at the Webster Y. M. C. A. There were so many boys that they formed three clubs, each electing their own set of officers.

All three clubs met at the "Y" every Monday night between 7:30 and 9:00. One of the problems which confronted them was how to make money. They solved this by having several dances at the "Y" for the students in their grade. Everyone always looked forward to these dances.

The boys this year seemed to be a very enthusiastic group and accomplished what they set out to do.

The three clubs were Hi-Y A, having John Stauber, president; Jon Wagner, secretary; and Sherwood Carr, treasurer; Hi-Y B, Pete Sorbitz, president; Don Mueller, secretary; and Jack McAtee, treasurer; Hi-Y C, Bob Phemister, president; Joe Loffler, secretary and treasurer.
This year the interest of the freshman boys in Hi-Y was so overwhelming that the club had to be split into three sections, A, B, and C. Each met at a different time, conducted its own business and elected its own officers. However, there was the same common element in each division: the enthusiastic support they gave their clubs, causing Hi-Y '55 to be one of the best groups ever.

With the sponsorship of Harly Gellhouse, they had many planned activities and guest speakers. Besides aiding in several community projects, the boys sponsored the traditional Hi-Y dances.

The officers which led their clubs through the exceptional year were: A—J D. Nolan, president; Steve Brown, vice-president; Mike Sturges, secretary; Berry Scott, treasurer; B—Dick Boeneder, Dave Cooper, Paul Stein and Jim Wallace; and C—Dave Stewart, Herbert Rose, Gene Baerman, and Hugh Miller.
The purpose of this organization is to acquaint members with the practical applications of chemistry, and to show them the possibilities of different fields according to their interests.

To accomplish this aim the Chemistry Club did many varied and interesting things. At the beginning of the year the members took a field trip to Washington University in the school bus. A college professor gave them a typical chemistry lecture and then showed them the facilities of their laboratories. Most popular with the club were demonstrations given by their fellow students. Blackroom photography was the subject of one of these demonstrations. Movies gave vivid accounts of chemistry in many different fields.

Representatives from all the chemistry classes composed the steering committee. They planned the programs for the club. Roger Berger was the able president, Toby Negley was vice-president, and Barbara Hicks was secretary-treasurer. The members enjoyed having Mr. Boyde as their sponsor.
As usual the Senior Red Cross was just as busy this year as ever. Early in the first semester, the organization had its annual membership drive. They were very pleased with the number of members that joined. Any person who wished to become a member donated any amount of money to the organization and they received their Red Cross button and membership card. Two representatives were elected from each home room and this group worked together completing their annual projects.

The main project of this year's Senior Red Cross was the filling of a large gift chest which was sent overseas to a bombed-out school. The representatives and officers made this a very worthwhile project.

These are the following officers: Mary Ellen Beattie, president; Nancy Wright, vice-president; Diane Dcelling, secretary; Al Griese and Barb Cutter, treasurers. Miss Fiebler sponsored the group.

Barnett, Graf, Bair, Kerr, Flauitt, Bode, Basse, Carter, Scharr.
This year the Junior Red Cross started the year off by having a membership drive. A student giving a dime or more received a membership card. In this way $76.47 was raised which was turned over to the Red Cross.

Later on the students filled forty-five boxes to be sent overseas. They also joined with the senior school in filling a chest with school supplies which also was to be sent overseas.

At Christmas time they undertook the job of filling forty stockings for the people at Jefferson Barracks.

Some of the members helped at the chapter house fixing toys for the toy shop. Others helped the Red Cross with their house-to-house membership campaign.

The officers for the year were: Sally Williams, president; Lysle Barrows, vice-president; Harriet Howe, secretary. The sponsor was Miss Roberts.
Audio-Visual Operators are a group of students who operate the movie and public address system of the school. This organization is a service to the school and its members are people who are interested in this type of work.

At assemblies, club meetings, banquets, dances, athletic meetings and many other affairs the A. V. O. members run the public address system.

Besides showing movies in classrooms, the boys presented several movies after school in an effort to raise money. Many students attended these movies. The students also enjoyed the music in the auditorium before school which was advertising for their movies.

Much credit should go to Mr. Leek who sponsored this group, and who carefully instructed the boys in the operation and servicing of the machines. The officers of A. V. O. are: Gene Fleschner, president; Jim Hayward, vice-president; and Larry Lucy, secretary-treasurer.
Diversified Occupations, more commonly known just as "D. O.", is a program which is open to every Webster High School student sixteen years of age or over.

This course, which may be taken for two years, entitles the enrolled student to four units of high school credit. These credits are earned both by taking the course at school and by the outside employment. Most of the "D. O.'s" attend regular classes in the morning, but spend the afternoon in their chosen field of work gathering valuable experience for their future vocation.

The Diversified Occupations classes are divided into two groups, Occupational Information and Work Experience, which meet every morning. In class the students receive instruction from their sponsor, Mr. Trotter, relating to vocations in general and to the vocation of each individual.

Anyone taking D. O. has the definite advantage of earning while learning.
When you get those dreaded slips of paper telling you of your financial status with the Senior Library, don’t blame the unfortunate person who delivered it because he was probably a library assistant just carrying out his assignments.

The assistants this year had the honor of working in the new Senior Library. Some of their duties are to check books in and out, place books on the shelves, type, and perform any duties required at the time.

They also had social activities such as several parties, participating in the Student Council Dance Carnival with a bean bag booth, and holding meetings and electing officers. President this year was Phyllis Pell, vice-president; Carry Cullimore and Bob Lamprecht, secretary-treasurer. The assistants receive certain pins of merit, the requirements being that a person must work two semesters in the library.
Junior Library Club

Student volunteers made up the membership of the Junior Library Club. Each member had his own job, such as checking books in and out, processing new books, typing, or reading new books and recommending them to others. One of the important jobs undertaken by the club was that of collecting toys at Christmas.

The officers were: Shirley Hall, president; and Roy Fassel, secretary-treasurer.

Bridge Club

"Which suit counts most?"
"Who bids first?"

These are just a couple of the questions asked in room 106 any Friday afternoon between 3:15 and 4:30, where the Bridge Club met.

Mr. Brucker, the sponsor, started the group with what he called "horse sense" bridge, a simplified system. Later on, when the group had progressed, they went into tournament play. This club consisted of seniors.

Daniel, Parker, Craig, Paden.
Doelling, Bode, Merkel, Bode, Basse, Sheppard.
The Aviation Club was made up of boys and girls of the junior school who were interested in flying. The members of the club received six ground lessons and three flight lessons set up of the Civil Aeronautics Administration. Mrs. Loretta Slavick, a member of the Women’s Pilot Association and the St. Louis Chapter of N. A. A. instructed the group in two of the lessons. Mr. John Patterson of the C. A. A. taught the first lesson, and Sid and Harley Weiss taught the remaining lessons. The Weiss brothers also acted as flight instructors for the flying lessons.

Meeting in room 216, the members of the Aviation Club elected Paul Stein as president and Cara Jo Thomson as vice-president. The club was ably sponsored by Mrs. Stolberg, who gave them much valuable time and thought to making it a success.

Every other Friday afternoon the up-and-coming writers of Webster, better known as the Scribblers, held their meetings. The purpose of this club was to encourage original writing of the members in stories, poems, essays, and other types of literature. However, the Scribblers were not ones to settle down to work and have no fun; each meeting the girls prepared delicious refreshments, making a party without too much trouble or expense. The club also had several picnics in the spring of the year.

The group was ably led through the year by David Millar, president; Joyce Barnett, vice-president; Karen Samuelson, secretary; Nancy Evans, treasurer. The programs were planned by Marilyn Irwin and Marilyn Graham, who were elected program secretaries. Mrs. Hammaker gave many hours of valuable time and thought to sponsoring the Scribblers.

Music and dramatics expand the soul and open avenues of beauty and appreciation to all who will explore them.
Music and Drama
The Concert Orchestra is the goal of all boys and girls who have been playing orchestra music in grade and high school. This year the reading and studying of the works of both the old and contemporary masters gave the students an opportunity to become acquainted with many types of music.

The activities started with a picnic at Sue Gewinner's home. On the serious side the orchestra joined Kirkwood in a concert, and the string section attended a music clinic at Columbia. The orchestra furnished the music for Brigadoon, Ceremony, Graduation, and assembly for the entire student body. In the spring they visited another Missouri high school to help arouse interest in organizing an orchestra there, and participated in the annual County Music Festival. The important activity was the annual spring concert at which graduating Seniors were featured as soloists, with full orchestra accompaniment. The high point of the year was the visit of Henri Teminanka of the world famed Paganinni String Quartet.
Without a well-balanced Junior Orchestra there could be no Concert Orchestra; so the junior group works busily at developing proper techniques and studying and reading all types of music from string to symphonic.

One of their most interesting activities is playing at the various grade schools during the course of the year. This gives them confidence and ability to perform as a group before an audience. Every six weeks throughout the year each student is required to play a solo before the entire group. This is a good incentive to practice and gives the individuals poise and added experience. Near the end of the year the group played for the annual St. Louis County Music Festival.
This year Concert Band, under the able direction of Mr. Hans Lemcke, kept alive the tradition of fine assembly programs and concerts. The band played on several occasions in the grade schools and also participated in the Annual Music Festival and the Spring Concert.

Under the heading of Concert Band is the Marching Band. The credit for this organization’s success at the football games this year belongs to Mr. Henry Lemcke. Mr. Lemcke spent many hours plotting the various formations and directing their execution on the field.

The flashing new uniforms, which were seen during the latter part of the year, were obtained through the efforts of the Rotary Club of Webster Groves. The band is very grateful to the Rotary Club for the gift and knows that the uniforms will be a symbol of appreciation every time they are worn.

The officers for this year were: President, Dick Montgomery; Vice-President, Roger Berger; Secretary, Doris Wallis; Treasurer, Tom Chapman; Assistant Conductor, David Lyon.

Mr. Lemcke attributes this year’s success to the willing cooperation of the band members. Although he is losing his senior members, he feels confident that next year will be as rewarding as was this year.
The Junior Band was divided into two groups. Students in the seventh and eighth grades met second hour, while those in the ninth grade met third hour. Each group was under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke.

Small groups selected from the Junior Band played for several Cub Scout Blue and Gold dinners; the entire band played in the annual St. Louis County Music Festival. This year for the first time the Junior Band wore uniforms from the senior band.

Next year the Junior Band plans to participate in the marching band. They will wear black uniforms, in contrast with the orange uniforms of the senior band.

The officers were as follows:

President: Second hour, Dan Drebes; third hour, Mark Hinshaw.

Vice-President: Second hour, Tom McLaughlin; third hour, Jim Murdock.

Secretary-Treasurer: Second Hour, Tom Wagner; third hour, Phil Fowler.

Librarian: Second hour, Richard Johnson, John Kennedy; third hour, Al Blatter.
The A Cappella Choir ushered in this year with an evening rally at the home of Rob Stuart. The evening was spent by the presenting of skits and group singing around a bonfire. After several weeks of hard practice the choir was ready for their first important appearance of the year, that of singing for the Missouri State Teachers' Convention. Remember the week of the "big snow"? But even in spite of the weather the choir went on. The Christmas season is the highlight for choir. After singing several request programs the climax was the beautiful and stirring Vesper service which has become one of Webster's most treasured traditions.

Also the school halls echoed with their caroling just before vacation. This was the second year the choir sang at the Masonic Temple and it sang for the St. Louis Rotary for the first time.

Finally, under the direction of Miss Replogle, the choir presented the Scottish operetta, Brigadoon.
Without Beginning Choir there could be no future advanced choir. Realizing this, the members diligently worked throughout the year singing, listening to Miss Replogle's advice, learning to follow directions, and singing some more. By the end of the year they were able to sing like an accomplished choir.

The choir had a get-acquainted party at Pennel's in the fall. Skits were presented and singing around a bonfire was enjoyed by all.

Like A Cappella Choir, the most enjoyable experience of the year was preparing and presenting their part in the Vesper service. This was an experience which will always be remembered by those who took part.

The officers for the year were Dave DeVos, president; Laurie Heineman, vice-president; Carolyn Beasley, secretary; and George Whyte and Ann Tapner, treasurers.
Under the direction of Miss Esther Replogle, the A Cappella Choir presented the musical play, "Brigadoon", which opened at the high school exactly five years after its initial appearance as a Broadway success in March, 1947.

The audiences, which packed the auditorium on three successive nights, were conducted on a mythical tour through the highlands of Scotland. A very capable cast was headed by the vocal talents of Bob Koch, Mike Manning, and Martha Stoecker. The dancing of Sam Boggess and Betty Jo Richter was a highlight of the program. The comic leads were played by Mike Schewe and Camilla Wright.

The story of "Brigadoon" dealt with an imaginary village in the forests of Scotland. The village was brought from the shadows of the eighteenth century for only one day every hundred years. Although a play of such a delicate nature as "Brigadoon" was selected, the resulting production pleased everyone.
The primary aim of the Chamber Music Club is to make the students intelligent consumers of the musical arts. Participation in instrumental music is stressed as a means of teaching students the standards of evaluation and appreciation of music.

Monthly meetings are held at the homes of the members. Each member is expected to play a solo or be in an ensemble at least one of these meetings. Discussions on many phases of music are held. At a Christmas party at the home of Mr. Werner, many alumni were welcomed. Also each spring a recital is planned for the parents to show them what the club has accomplished during the year.

The club is very proud of its accomplishments and many of its alumni are doing outstanding work in the field of music in different parts of the country.
The goal of all ambitious and dramatically interested students of Webster High is to some day become a Thespian, but membership in this National Honor Society requires more than ambition and interest. In order to earn that highly prized star behind your name, it takes 100 hours of stage work, 30 of which must be behind stage, good grades, a willingness to work, and a genuine interest in dramatics.

The Thespians this year were kept busy producing three major presentations to help finance the sending of delegates to the National Drama Conference. It is to be held for 10 days near the beginning of the summer at the University of Indiana. Miss Seibert sponsored all the activities of the group in addition to this trip.

The officers for this year were George Patterson, president; Margie Ellison, Vice-President; Jackie Jasper, secretary; Eleanore Herzer, treasurer; and Paul Graf, sergeant-at-arms.
"PAPA IS ALL"

Last spring, the story of a tyrannical father in a Pennsylvania Dutch family who dominated his household, was portrayed in the play, "Papa Is All."

"LIFE WITH MOTHER"

The entertaining family life which existed in "Life with Father" was again relived last February, when this sequel was presented. The main idea centered around Mother's desire to get an engagement ring from Father, who provided the audience with many laughs.

"CLEMENTINE"

"Clementine," the amusing story of a tomboy who loses interest in football and turns into a lovely young woman, was presented at the beginning of the school year.
Production Staff

Let's make up.

Production Staff is the unsung hero of every presentation at Webster. Students who are interested in learning the makings of a play and are willing to work hard are the ones who make up this group. In order to become an actual member of the Production Staff it is necessary to first earn 15 hours through stagecraft.

The crews completely plan each production. Students take over every job from director to make-up. Many hours after school and on Saturdays are spent in The Little Theater painting, sewing, hammering, sawing and designing sets. New committee heads are chosen for each play the dramatics department gives, so that all interested members have a chance at each job.

Besides gaining valuable experience those on Production Staff earn hours for Thespian membership while giving their services.
Spotlighters is a dramatics club for all ninth and tenth graders, whose ambition is to eventually become a Thespian. The purpose of the club is to give the students a chance to participate in a play and gain some experience and knowledge about dramatics.

The only production presented by the Spotlighters was "The Hand of the Dragon" a Chinese fantasy by Madge Miller. It was presented April 2nd, 3rd, 4th. Everyone who participated in the production learned how much time and energy had to be given to make the play a success. They were also shown how much depended upon the stage crew, and that the cast alone couldn't produce the play.

The officers for the year were: Carol Mattick, president; Vera Eiler, vice-president; Joyce Wilkie, secretary; and Bonnie Lee Lovrenic, treasurer. The club was sponsored by Miss Martin.

Athletics give us practice in cooperation with new people and new ideas which we encounter as we expand our horizons.
Athletics
In the last week of August a small squad of approximately fifty boys met in the team room of the Robert's Gym. Although the first few days were pretty warm for football, the boys were anxious to get started. Coach Moss was disappointed in the size and knowledge of the squad from the beginning, as there were only four returning lettermen and few others had much experience.

The boys were continually fighting for first-string berths, because of the many positions which were vacated during the season due to injuries to some of the key players.

In the first game of the season Webster lost 21-6 to a strong Southwest team which later went on to win the City championship. The following week Webster edged out a victory over Cleveland 12-7. Webster lost its next two games, the first to Granite City 12-7, and the following week they were beaten badly by a hard-charging University City team, 40-0.

Webster came back in the next game to win from Maplewood 2-0, on a safety. The Webster team was encouraged by this victory, as a Webster team had not beaten a Maplewood team for three years. Webster lost its next game to Ritenour 14-0, but came back strong the following week to win over Clayton 21-14. In the next game Normandy edged Webster 12-7 at Normandy.

The Webster-Brentwood game had to be postponed because of a rain-soaked field. Three weeks later Webster was defeated 33-0 by Kirkwood in the traditional Thanksgiving Day game.

After the season Tollie Kirkland was elected captain of the 1952 squad which had a season record of 3 wins and 6 losses.
Basketball

Even a month before the regular season you could hear the swish of nets. That is how enthusiastic the prospects were. With several lettermen coming back from last year and some fine boys from last year's "B" team, Mr. Yates predicted that the Statesmen would have a fine year. The team had a good season, although there were several very tough games lost to some of the top teams in the District.

Three of the games lost were to Cleveland by a score of 40-37 and two losses to the U. City Indians by the scores of 29-27 and 39-37.

When fans went to see the team play they were almost always assured of seeing a good game. Each one was more thrilling than the previous one, because of so many close scores.

The game that hurt most was the first U. City game. At the end of regulation time the score was tied. With the score still tied in overtime and only seconds to go, Webster lost the ball and U. City recovered and made the winning basket. This loss didn’t stop the team, because they bounced back in the next game to a ten-point victory over Clayton.

The Statesmen then took a trophy in their own tournament, by winning the third place game from Ritenour.

Winning a greater majority of their games during the season the Statesmen showed excellent team work and wonderful sportsmanship through every game.

Looking back at the season it is agreed that the Orange and Black, as Mr. Yates said they would, had a highly successful season.
Wrestling

Coach Leonard Bryant’s wrestlers had a rough time of it this year and ended up with a 4-7-1 record. However, the grunt and groaners finished strong, winning three out of their last four meets.

Outstanding performances were those of Bob Batz (9 won, 3 lost), Buback (7-3), Hoss (6-4), and others. Missing many of last year’s experienced workers, the grapplers started off by losing to Ritenour and at last won their first meet by downing Ferguson, January 4.

Those wrestlers going to state, this year held at Maplewood, were Bob Batz, Don Buback, Ned Budlong, Don Hoss, Arlo Moehlenpah, Bob Neunreiter, Don Ramsey, Mike Richmond, Ray Short, Jim Wright, Bob Carey, Jim De-Long, Carl Elster, Gene Fleschner, Earl Hanson, and Paul Hooker.
Coach Froebel Gaines again had a successful season, perhaps not as outstanding as others, but one Webster could be proud of as the Statesmen compiled a 12-6 record.

With pitchers Glenn Brickey, who was captain, Guy Rose, and Erv Dunkel as mainstays, Webster finished second in the Suburban League, won the state baseball sectional, and lost to Sikeston in the state tournament by the score of 1-0.

Leading hitter for the season was Lee "Toot-Toot" Carlson with a very respectable .354 percentage.

Webster obtained the honor of going to state by downing Beaumont 2-1 and thus was one of the eight to attend the finals. Other outstanding features were Erv Dunkel's no-hitter against Maplewood, winning 8-0, striking out five and walking none. Another distinction was beating Clayton, who had edged out Webster for first place and had been undefeated until meeting Webster for its second time.
Track

The Webster Groves track team of 1950-1951 closed a winless season, losing both their dual meets. Losing to Clayton 110-101 and to Kirkwood 130-82, the thinclads put up valiant battles.

Webster also attended the University Track and Field Meet in which they placed fifth and the state tournament where two relay teams placed and Pete Orr ran fourth in the 440 yard dash. Bob Massengale was elected captain.

Golf

Last year the golf team was very successful, for it was undefeated in match play and it placed second in the High School District Golf Tournament. The matches were counted by taking the six lowest scores from the eight boys who made up the team.

Frank Frier and Dick Duckworth represented the team in the State Tournament. Under the skillful guidance of Coach Yates, the boys benefitted greatly.
This year the cheerleaders were fortunate to have a balanced squad, consisting of four girls and four boys. They were: Jean Williams, captain; Jane Williams, Jane Brown, Joyce DuMont, Al Griese, Kit Gallenkamp, Al Klein, and Jack Stoldrier.

To start the year in a co-operative spirit, the cheerleaders had a pre-game supper at the Williams' home. Actually the cheerleaders started their work at the beginning of the summer to learn all the cheers. At the first pep assembly the squad introduced two songs, "Ki-Yi-Ki-Yi-Kus" and "Look at That Team," both of which became quite popular.

Everyone will remember the rainy and cold Turkey Day Game at which our brave cheerleaders splashed and slipped while leading the peppy crowd in cheers. At the annual Lions Club football banquet, the cheerleaders led the team and men in cheers.

This year's cheerleading squad had the spirit and co-operation that had excelled the best squads that Webster has had.

Crisp football weather brought the many Pep Club members to Forty Acres to cheer for the team.

The Pep Club was organized differently this year, according to the different activities of the club. The members volunteered for one of five committees. The committees met separately and elected their chairmen. The committees and their chairmen are: Parade Committee, Margot Rogers; Dance Committee, Sally Toft; Goalposts Committee, Sue Pender; Card Section Committee, Sue Gewinner; Entertainment at Halves Committee, Margie Rinehart. Mr. Brucker sponsored the club.

Many colorful parades were organized by the Pep Club. Early on Saturday mornings the Pep Club members could be seen atop ladders at Forty Acres decorating the goalposts with orange and black crepe paper. The section in the stands for Pep Club members was also outlined in orange and black. At the Dance-Carnival the Pep Club was one of the many organizations which had a booth.

Coach Froebel Gaines again put a winning squad on the field as the "B" football team went undefeated, although they tied once. The "Bees" held their opponents to only twelve points while they amassed an amazing total 215 or an average of 43 per game.

The junior Statesmen were scoreless by St. Charles as neither could cross the stripe, but the Statesmen ran over Maplewood 26-0, U. City 36-0, Clayton 26-12, and Normandy 47-0. George Von Hoffman, who helped spark the team was elected captain.

Sophomore Football

The "C" team posted a 2-3 record this year as the freshmen experienced, for the first time, league competition. Coach August Lamar, coaching for his third straight year, had help from Mr. Plahn in guiding the freshmen.

The squad started off with a thriller as Steve Riggins scored a touchdown with but 17 seconds remaining in the game to edge Wydown 13-6. The "C" team played University City next and led 7-6 at the half. However, unlike the first two periods in which the freshmen outplayed U. City, the freshmen ran out of steam and went down to defeat 18-7.

The team bounced back to down Ferguson 8-0 with Henry Kuhlman intercepting a pass and running it 45 yards for the T.D. The following two games went to the opposition. Ritenour winning 13-7 and Normandy doing the same 18-0. Copeland and Fowler were elected co-captains.
Sophomore Basketball

The "B" team, once again under the supervision of Coach Louis Nail, continued the fine work shown by past "B" teams. Losing their first game to McKinley in double overtime 25-23, the Junior Varsity started rolling.

Pacers for the squad were Hershel O'Kelley, Bo Toft, Sherwood Carr, Hudson Hellmich, Laurie Heineman, and Jon Thompson. The "B" team also entered the annual Suburban Tournament.

Freshman Basketball

The Freshmen of the 1951-1952 basketball season had a successful record. Coached by Ray Moss, the freshmen, chosen from the ninth grade and occasionally from the eighth, got their first experience of participating in organized competition.

The Freshmen in the early part of the season lost to Wydown, but later avenged the defeat by downing them at Webster on February 6. To add to their accomplishments, the "C" team won Maplewood's invitational tournament. Harry Kuhlman led the team in scoring.

Although snow and bitter weather cancelled many scheduled hockey games this year the class and varsity teams played whenever possible.

Kirkwood, Normandy, Clayton, U. City, Maplewood, and Mary Institute were the schools which the Webster teams competed against. The Senior class team won both of their games, while the Junior team tied their two games, and the Sophomore team tied one and lost the other. Varsity which is composed of the three class teams, tied one of their games and lost the other two.

At the beginning of the season, the Webster teams went to the annual Hockey Field Day at Washington University. Some members of the team were chosen to attend the Scottish Hockey Clinic, which was held at University City. However, other members of the teams went along to watch, and by doing this gained valuable pointers on how to play hockey.
This year, on February 2nd, Webster had the honor of holding the annual Sports Day, which is the main event during the basketball season. All four gyms were used by the teams of visiting schools. In this tournament the Juniors and Seniors won, but the Sophomores lost their game.

Webster faced teams from other schools, such as Maplewood, Clayton, Kirkwood and U. City. Each Senior School class had its own class team and varsity was chosen from these three teams.

After passing a referee's test given by the Women's National Officials Rating Committee, a few Senior girls refereed intra-mural basketball games this year.

Before a person is eligible to be on a class team, they must participate in intra-mural basketball. This year the teams are proud of their records and hope the future teams do as well.

Graham, Beasley, Nash, Seib, Miller, Smith, Miller, Bader, Benzel, Burch, Pieroe, Mumbricr, Leutwiler, Kiebler, Williams, Stone, Lillard, Dirkroger, Remick, Lone, Bassler, Hampton, Morris, Collins, Du Mont, Toft, Siepker, Williams, Hanson, Lauth, Mullen.
Over two-hundred girls played on Webster's intra-mural volleyball teams, proving that volleyball is one of the most popular of girls' sports. The skills of volleyball are less numerous than required by other sports, but volleyball requires most of all an alert player. Strong competition and good sportsmanship prevailed at the after-school games.

From the intra-mural teams, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class teams were chosen. These teams played other county class teams at the various schools. Players for the varsity team were picked from the three class teams, and also played other schools in the county. Intra-mural volleyball was directed by Miss Daniel.

A number of girls took intra-mural rating tests sponsored by the St. Louis Board of Women Officials. These girls who passed the test were qualified to referee at intra-mural volleyball games.
As soon as spring weather comes the field in back of the school is filled with girls, and softball equipment. Softball is the last sport of the year. Good sportsmanship and teamwork as well as softball skill are stressed.

From the intra-mural teams class teams are chosen as in other sports. The class teams engage in keen competition with class teams from other St. Louis County schools. As in years past, a varsity team was chosen from the three class teams. Anyone can take part in the intra-mural competition, but only members who have been on class teams are eligible for varsity.

The varsity had a record of two wins and one loss. They won from Clayton and U. City, but lost to Kirkwood. Class teams also had good records. This softball season brought to a close a very important phase of high school for the Seniors who played.
Bowling

As the years have been moving along the Bowling Club has become more and more successful. Two tournaments were held this year, one during each semester. Only the members of G. A. A. were eligible to play in the tournaments.

The teams bowled at alleys of their own choice and turned in their scores to Miss Daniel, who sponsored the organization. A good future is anticipated for the Bowling Club.

Tennis

Last fall tennis got under way with a ladder singles tournament won by Carolyn Steger. There was also a mixed doubles tournament won by Judy Gifford and Tom Payne.

In the spring a girls' singles elimination tournament and a girls' doubles ladder were held. Mr. Parks, head of the boys' intra-murals, and Miss Daniel, head of the girls' intra-murals, got together to plan the tournaments which offered much enjoyment to tennis players.
The Girls' Athletic Association is a group organized for the purpose of increasing and maintaining high standards and a greater interest in girls' sports. Any girl wishing to become a member must first participate and gain the required number of points in at least one sport each semester. Competition is keen, but fair play is stressed in all contests. In addition to the usual school sports there is a bowling team and a tennis tournament to wind up the spring season.

In the fall the members proudly take their fathers to "Dads' Night" and in the spring their mothers are honored guests at the annual "Awards Banquet". At the banquet officers for the coming year are introduced and awards are given out. The Kampus King dance, a backward at which a Senior boy is crowned Kampus King, was held in the spring.

Much credit should be given to the G. A. A. sponsors, Miss Daniel and Mrs. Schapp, for the success of the group.

STUDENT COUNCIL DECLARES WAR ON ADMINISTRATION

HAROLD TROPHY PRESENTED

The Harold Trophy for bravery in the face of overwhelming odds was awarded this year to Harold H. Harold. The deed he performed was the rescue of a drowning grasshopper in the storm sewer at the corner of Lockwood and Plant.

In Harold's own words, here is the story of the rescue: "I was walking down Lockwood after attending an open house at Parker's Funeral Home. When I reached Plant, I thought I heard a noise on my left. I stopped and listened. I heard the sound again. It sounded like a grasshopper calling for help. Sensing immediately that something was wrong, I threw off my sportcoat ($18.95 — Boyd's Bargain Basement. advt.) and flew to the rescue. The sewer was dry but still the cries persisted. Then, off to one side in a half-filled tin can, I saw it! A grasshopper, thrashing around wildly, shouting at the top of whatever a grasshopper shouts at the top of—'Help, help.' He was going down for the third time when I lifted him from the water. Remembering my training in Scouts, I flopped the hopper on a flat stone and began giving him artificial respiration. After a quarter of an hour had passed, the hopper opened one eye and in a rather throaty voice asked me what I thought I was doing. I explained the situation in which I found him and asked him what he had been doing. He said he had been swimming and got a cramp in his off hind leg. By using adroit questioning, I was able to determine that the hopper's name was Hedda.

"After seeing him safely on his way, I continued my journey. With my accustomed modesty, when I returned home, I called the large metropolitan newspapers and told them my story." (Continued on Page 2)

H S. BAND GIVES ANNUAL CONCERT

The highlight of the cultural activities at Webster High this year was the annual High School Band Concert. The program in its entirety was as follows: "The Eggnog Overture; the popular Strauss number, "The Blue Dahlia Waltz; and the well-known Sousa march, Scars and Gripes Forever. Also featured was a tuba solo by "Tiny" Zpzqur. He played a slow, melodic arrangement of the Flight of the Bungle Bee.

The season was brought to a successful close by the presentation of a cast iron baton to the director, Mr. Hands Limply. Mr. Limply, with characteristic modesty, gave credit to his son, Mr. Hang Limply, by saying, "Ah, we could not have had such a vunderful organization mitout mine boy, Hang." The band members then gave a spontaneous cheer for their leaders. There then followed a little good natured horseplay during which the baton was accidently bent over Mr. Limply's head. Mr. Limply's only comment was "Ach!'" The baton has been straightened out. ($3.98 — Webster Groves Blacksmith Shop. "We specialize on straightening bent batons."—advt.)

ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with deep regret that the staff of the Harold Tribune announces that this issue of the Harold Tribune is not only the first but also the last.

FACULTY PURGED IN GIGANTIC STUDENT CLEAN-UP

H. A. Ladder Exiled to Kirkwood

In a surprise move recently, Mr. H. A. Ladder, principal of Webster Groves High School, left town under cover of darkness, escaping the violent misfortune which befell several of his faculty associates at a gigantic neck-tie party thrown by the revolting students. It is suspected that he crossed the border disguised as a large keg of 10-penny nails.

Mr. Ladder made his headquarters in an abandoned fire station in Kirkwood and dispatched orders with the fluency of an old campaigner. The main issue he wished to settle was the cause of the unseemly revolt. From reports of the administration's underground sources, it is suspected that the cause is the low alcoholic content of the orange juice in the cafeteria. A Council sub-committee is preparing to look into the situation.

"Carrying on Bravely,"
Mrs. Ladder Says

In an exclusive interview with a Harold reporter, Mrs. Ladder stated that Mr. Ladder was carrying on with great bravery. However, she also said that the strain was beginning to tell on him. "He is keeping in shape by lifting weights, though," she stated. (Editor's note — see advertisement of Charles Fatless Barbell Co.) Mr. Ladder will undoubtedly be moving back to his old quarters as soon as

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

During the period in which our rival school, Jerkwood, was having its mid-year commencement exercises, a group of vandals recognized as Websterites (more accurately defined as - shudder—THE GREEN GROUP!!) violently mishandled the vehicles both at and tri. in Jerkwood's outdoor cycle rack. Such deeds as perloining air from the kiddies' tires, exchanging valve caps, and replacing the chains with automobile fan belts were performed. (Tsk-tsk.) Perhaps not quite as serious was the minor act of pushing the principal's car off a twenty-foot embankment. The car was not nearly as battered up as was the principal, who was in the car at the time. What should be done in a case such as this?

H. A. L.

Editor's reply:
Why ruin a perfectly good car; next time remove the principal before you push him off.

Athlete Of The Year

With an eye for the future, Fellow Common. the athlete of the year at Webster High, says he is going to try to get into college on a purely academic basis. Fellow has worked hard to maintain his D average, often working 5 or 6 minutes at a stretch on a single subject. He often sat up until 7:30 p.m. working on his spelling lesson. Common attributes his success to his unusually alert mind and his perseverance.

Party Points

We have had many requests to publish party suggestions for people over 95. It is important to keep in mind the age of people when planning an affair of this type. The party should begin with a mixer of some type, possibly by having the guests play "Foreign Agent." This game differs slightly from musical chairs, in that the people count off by two's and all the number ones then bend over and touch their toes. The remainder of the guests take turns jumping over the entire row one by one. If anyone is jumping when the music stops, he is called a "foreign agent" and is taken cut and shot.

Another game that has always met with huge success is that of "William Tell." The only equipment needed is a bow and arrow and a bushel of apples. One of the players is selected to play the role of "Royal Apple Dispenser." Then, from the remainder of the group, pick two stout fellows to play the part of "Royal Toters" and one more to be the "Royal Apple Polisher." When this is done, select a member to play the part of William Tell. It is now time to begin the game. The "Royal Apple Polisher" goes to the "Royal Apple Dispenser" and gets an apple. Then polishing the apple, he puts it on his head, and backs up a wall. William Tell takes the bow and arrow and attempts to shoot the apple from the "Apple Polisher's" head. It is usually a fatal attempt and the "Polisher" drops with a dramatic scream. It seems a pity to leave him there, so the "Royal Toters" step forward, put the apple in his mouth and tote him away. It now seems obvious that if we are to continue this game we must select a new "Apple Polisher." If this game is to be played very much, you must have a large group to select "Apple Polishers" from. You may have difficulty getting people to be the Polisher. If this occurs, follow the example of Uncle Sam and draft them. If you play this game long enough, you will run out of guests. When that occurs, the party will be just about finished. To give the party a complete air, you might pass out favors to the remaining guests as remembrances of the occasion. A small vial of quicklime or maybe a polished arrowhead would do the trick nicely.

In The Dim Light

The most outstanding piano player of Webster gave his secrets of piano magic in a small booklet which is on sale in the High School Book Room. In this booklet, the author, Mr. William Klinker, outlined several simple exercises he uses to strengthen his fingers and increase his reach. He advocated fastening one end of a rubber band to the thumb and little finger of each hand and the other end to the ends of the piano. Mr. Klinker has been using this exercise for years and his fingers have now stretched enough to enable him to scratch the palm of his hand around a half-gallon milk bottle. In order to strengthen the muscles of his arms, Mr. Klinker pounds violently on the keyboard for several hours each day. This not only keeps him in shape to play for extensive periods, but it also keeps three piano tuners from starving. Thus it seems that not only is Mr. Klinker making the music world a better place, but he is also helping the piano tuners' union to keep its men on the payroll. Let's all give three rousing cheers for Mr. Klinker. Rah! Rah! Rah!

MARTHA TRUCK

is wrong with this girl? Do you think she could possibly be unbalanced?

Dear Harold:

Lects not be too harsh in judging this girl. Its within the realm of possibility that something is wrong with YOU! For instance, are you sure that your fingernails are clean?

Are You a 97-Pound Weakling?

If so, try our "Dynamic Suspension" method for 3 months and if at the end of this time you do not weigh at least 100 pounds try it for another 3 months.

You'll be amazed at the results of our plan. A recent enrollee, Mr. I. M. Youngblood, is making rapid progress. His comment, upon completion of our 3 month method was . . . "Whew. I'm bushed!" Send 10c today for your complete Bar Bell Set with instructions included. Don't forget to include a small fee for mailing and handling costs which will amount to about $24.90. If at the end of three months you are not completely satisfied, return the barbells and your 10c will be refunded. However, be sure to send us $24.90 to handle mailing costs.

The twenty pictures on this page are those of the students chosen by the Class of 1952 as the outstanding seniors.

The senior class voted from a list of those ranking scholastically in the upper half of the class and selected the ten girls and ten boys who had made the greatest contribution to school life throughout the years. The basis of the election was each student's personality, character, and initiative as a citizen of the school. The ballots were carefully tabulated and the boys and girls pictured here are the ones chosen as the twenty outstanding seniors of 1952. Congratulations to each of you.
