THE ECHO

1956
"What sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to the human soul"
"Peace shall walk softly through these halls"
For world peace
These be
Three necessary things:
The HOME . . . the CHURCH . . .
The SCHOOL.
"Worthy books are not companions – they are solitudes"
Dedication

Today, as always, mankind holds on to the "delusive phantom of hope" that soon we will have a war-free world in which to live. Meanwhile, the Dove of Peace, symbolic of peace throughout the ages, still circles the globe and still strives desperately to overcome the forces of envy and hatred. Yet as long as men live and breathe and look up to God for guidance, world peace is not an insurmountable obstacle. It is to world peace that we dedicate The Echo of nineteen hundred fifty-six.

DAVID STURGES
President of Junior School
The Student Guidance Council has been in existence since 1948. These past eight years have proved successful in fulfilling the council's purpose of helping the individual who breaks the rules of the school to realize his mistakes and eventually to become a better citizen of the school.

George Thorpe, the president of the student body, and Bruce Kenamore, president of the senior school, were the advisers to the 1955-1956 council composed of: three seniors, Buzz Ferry, Miriam Miller, Brad Porter; one junior, Wally Gibbs; one sophomore, Bob Charow; and one freshman, Sarah Schilling. The members were elected by their respective classes.

A student violating a school law such as running in the hall, cutting in the lunch line, or being in a restricted area is brought before the council. There the council discusses the offense with the student. No punishment is given the offender, but instead the council attempts to show him why his conduct is not in the best interests of the student body.
The Senior Student Council, under the leadership of George Thorpe, Student Body President, and Bruce Kenamore, Senior School President, promoted the general welfare of the Webster High students. The thirty-three members, elected by the sophomore, junior, and senior grades, were the backbone and organizer of many activities. At their meetings they discussed and solved many school problems, planned the work of various committees, and promoted projects to encourage school spirit.

Hello Day, Football Week, Magazine Sales Campaign, Basketball-Wrestling Week, the school assemblies, Color Day, the Dance Carnival, displays, Lost and Found, and Spring Sports Day are all sponsored by the Student Council.

This year the Pep Rally was presented in an entirely different manner. The rally itself was held at Memorial Stadium. First speeches were given, and then the students formed a torchlight parade to the high school for the bonfire. The purpose of this outdoor rally was to encourage true school spirit and to allow more people to join in the fun.

The student governments from all St. Louis County high schools assemble monthly to discuss and work out various common problems. In December Webster was host to this County Council.

Guides

The Junior School Guides, sponsored by Mr. Brucker, were essential in keeping order in the Junior School during the first and second lunch periods. They performed an invaluable service to the school throughout the entire year.

Each boy's service was entirely voluntary, and it was necessary for him to give up his fourth hour study hall in order to be a guide.

Their most important duty was keeping the students out of restricted areas so that classes in session would not be disturbed. This was ordinarily done through persuasion and understanding, and only persistent violators were sent to the Guidance Council.

These guides deserved the respect of all their classmates and of the entire Senior School. Their duties have been very well accepted and have been fulfilled efficiently.

Monitors

The Junior School Monitors, sponsored by Miss Brantley, had authority in the cafeteria during the first and second lunch periods. There they maintained order by performing such duties as preventing the students from running, from cutting in line, and from buying food for others. The boys also kept the cafeteria orderly and clean for the remaining lunch period.

Those who participated in this system were chosen by Miss Brantley through the recommendations of teachers in the junior school. The honor and responsibility connected with their duties were realized by all the monitors. Through a system such as this, junior school students learned to discipline themselves, to respect the advice and authority of classmates, and to exercise a regard for their school and its property.

Twany
The purpose of the Junior Student Council is to promote the general welfare of the Junior School. Representatives for the council are chosen by their respective homerooms. The president and vice-president of the Junior School preside over the weekly meetings.

This year the council discussed and attempted to solve such problems as the behavior of students in the cafeteria, the instruction of new students in the use of lockers, and the conduct of pupils in assemblies. All discussion carried on in the council was reported to each homeroom.

The first special activity of the council was to serve as guides for the P.T.A. Open House. At Christmas the council had a party, and in February they sponsored the "putting" booth at the Dance Carnival.

Each year the graduating class selects twenty members of its group, ten boys and ten girls, as those students who have made outstanding contributions to their school through leadership, scholarship, and citizenship.
The James T. Hixson Award

The Senior Student Council of 1955 established an award to recognize seniors for outstanding performance in the fields of leadership, scholarship, sportsmanship, and service. The award was named in honor of Mr. James T. Hixon, who for thirty-six years served as principal of Webster Groves High School. The life of the award is ten years. All winners are presented with an engraved certificate, and their names are inscribed upon a trophy which is the permanent property of the high school.

To be eligible for an award, a senior must present the general qualifications of having maintained a 2.0 or better scholastic average and of having attended Webster Groves High School during both his junior and senior years. The winners of the Scholarship Award shall be the highest ranking boy and the highest ranking girl in the graduating class. One Sportsmanship Award shall be given to the boy who wins the Roberts Trophy. The other Sportsmanship Award shall be given to a girl chosen in the following manner: senior girls who have accumulated at least one thousand points shall nominate five candidates from their ranks; a faculty committee shall choose as winner one girl from this list of nominees. In the fields of Leadership and Service, the Senior Class shall nominate five boys and five girls on the basis of their qualifications in the respective fields; a faculty committee shall choose as winners one boy and one girl from each list of nominees.

During the school year each junior had a conference with his counselor, Miss Jones, to plan his senior year’s classes and activities.

The Junior Class sponsored several money-raising projects throughout the year. At the Dance Carnival the class was in charge of the basketball throw. In the spring the class sponsored a volleyball game between the faculties of Webster and Kirkwood high schools. The class also sold book covers at the beginning of each semester.

The three memorable events for each member of the class were the Junior Prom, the selection of class rings, and the junior picnic. On March third, the Junior Prom was held amid castles and other decorations picturing merry England. Here Don Oliver crowned the junior queen, Faith English, who was chosen by the class from the five maids: Carolyn Beall, Patty McFarland, Marti Baine, Penny Pate, and Faith. The most important event for many juniors was the selection of class rings. In late February these rings were chosen and ordered, and in May they were distributed. As its last activity of the year, the class held the annual picnic.

The class of 1958, with Miss Jackson as counselor, was composed of approximately four hundred students. The "fifty-eighters" began their year by electing a permanent committee whose purpose was to plan four social events for the entire class. This committee, composed of Julia Bodman, Susan Newburg, Bob Charrow, and Bill Pollock, worked with a group of parents and were aided by many volunteers. The parties featured dancing, floor shows, and carnival games.

Degenhardt, Doerr, Bulot, Geiser, Everett, Edwards, Dorris, Greer, Eckoldt, Eckoldt, Douglas, Ferguson.

Jackson, Hansen, Jones, LeGear, Legg, Hoefl, Knightly, James, How, Hansen, Geiser, Horch, Kramer.
The "fifty-eighters" participated in such organizations as G. A. A., Latin Club, French Club, Beginning Choir, and Student Council.

The B team sports were perhaps the most popular activities of the sophomore class. The football team, coached by Mr. Gaines, won two of its five games. The basketball team, coached by Mr. Moenkhaus, upheld the fine record of past years by winning sixteen of its eighteen games. The class was especially proud of the team, since it won third place in the Suburban League B Team Tournament.

Sports for the sophomore girls consisted of intramural, class, and varsity teams in hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball.
The ninth grade cabinet, under the guidance of Miss McClain, was composed of seven homeroom presidents; Douglas Nolte, Lian Nolan, Jim Townsend, Sandy McMillan, Richard Rhodes, Sally Pennell, and Susan Stanwood.

During the year a conference was held by the school administration with each member of the class. In these meetings the student's program was planned and the credit needed for graduation was explained. A typical freshman's program consisted of English, social studies, algebra or general mathematics, and elective such as language, science, home economics, or shop.

Among the activities enjoyed by the freshmen this year were Sutter's dancing classes, intramural sports, Junior Red Cross, Junior Student Council, and Junior Library Club.

The eighth grade cabinet, under the guidance of Miss Lilly Epps, consisted of seven homeroom presidents: Bill Harper, Jerry Davis, Marian Jun, Norman Schwesig, Louis Nauman, Gary Kokal, and Charles Wilson.

Two of the main extra-curricular activities of the eighth grade this year were dramatics and intramural sports. The students in dramatics participated in one-act plays. Sutter's dancing classes were also a favorite pastime. These classes were held in the Junior Girls Gymnasium every other Tuesday night. In addition to this instruction, many parties were given. Some of these, attended by students from both the Hixson Junior High and Webster Junior High, were held at the Sutter Dance Studio in Webster Groves.

Werner, Wilson, Wahlfield, Schuhay, Rasmussen, Simpson, Wilbas, Stewart, Williams, Thurman, Zagar, Wingate, White.

The class of 1961, advised by Mr. Smith, had a busy year getting acquainted with Webster High. To associate the "new-comers" with the high school routine, the counselor held a conference with each student and his parents. This class was the first one to experiment with the idea of teaching foreign languages to seventh graders. The languages offered were French and Spanish.

The main extra-curricular activity for the seventh graders was intramural sports, and one of the highlights of the year was the talent assembly in which much ability was found in the field of instrumental music.

Statesmen Show Band

The Statesmen Show Band is one of Webster’s most outstanding performing groups. Its stirring music provided the football games with spirit and color.

The band's social activities began with a hayride at Valley Mount Ranch. It also gave a Christmas Dance and Card-Party at Clark School on December seventeenth. Entertainment at the party consisted of a magician, Jim Wallace, and two dance groups, both from the Webster Groves Job’s Daughters, Bethel No. 6.

From the beginning of March until the end of May, the Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke, presented the following programs: two school assemblies, a concert at Hixson High featuring Barbara Rostron, and the thirty-fourth annual Spring Concert at Webster High. This year fifteen members represented Webster in the All-County Band. This delegation was the largest from any school in the surrounding area.

The string orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Rodney Johnson, consisted of twelve members. The organization had a very active year. One of its highlights was the participation in the St. Louis County Music Festival in April. Members also attended the fifth annual String Clinic at Missouri University and entertained teachers at the annual dinner of the Association of Classroom Teachers of Webster Groves.

Concert Orchestra

The concert orchestra is a much smaller group this year, due to the fact that a large number of students involved in it have been transferred to Hixson Junior High School. It is the hope of Mr. Rodney Johnson, the director, that within a few years the orchestra will be built up again, and that it will be able to continue its larger group work; however, at the present, it is concentrating mostly on small ensemble music.

The concert orchestra made several appearances, one of which was at the Missouri State Teachers Convention held at Kiel Auditorium last November. It also played for the Musical Educators National Conference last spring. In addition, smaller groups presented various programs throughout the year.

The Junior Band, under the direction of Mr. Henry Lemcke, was composed of sixty-seven students. This year approximately twenty-five of the members of the Junior Band played with the Statesmen Show Band, and eighteen of the members played with the Concert Band.

The highlights of the year were the St. Louis County Music Festival and the annual concert. In the spring the band also played for several grade school parades.

By showing a true interest in dramatics and by working at least six hours a semester in the Little Theatre, any student in the ninth, tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grades may become a member of the Dramatics Club.

International Theatre Week was the club’s main project for this year. Members studied certain phases of the Russian theatre, and in March a selected group produced a Russian play. Another highlight of the year, also occurring in March, was the series of fencing lessons taught by Miss Lazanas.

In May the members toured KWK television station. In addition, they presented to the public an evening of student-directed one-act plays. To climax the second year of the Dramatics Club the members prepared a talent show featuring talent found in their own club.

The purpose of the National Thespian Society is to promote dramatic arts in the secondary school. To become a member of this honorary organization, one must have at least one hundred hours of production work, including a minimum of thirty hours in stagecraft, must possess average grades, must show a sincere interest in dramatics, and must do work of outstanding excellence in at least one dramatic field.

This year, for the first time, each initiate was required to carry a scroll which was to be signed by Thespian members. Initiations were held after each of the three major productions.

In December the Webster Thespian Troupe was host to the second annual metropolitan regional dramatics conference. At this meeting representatives from eight St. Louis County high schools exchanged ideas on dramatics subjects.

ONLY AN ORPHAN GIRL

Only An Orphan Girl is a "soul-stirring drama of human trials and tribulations." The orphan girl Nellie, played by Carole Wahl, falls into the clutches of a greedy villain, Arthur Rutherford, played by Mike McReynolds, who wants to marry her for her money. When she refuses to talk to him, Arthur and his wife, Ethel, played by Ann Richardson, go as far as to buy the mortgage on the farm where Nellie lives. Having obtained the mortgage from Mrs. Appleby, played by Sue Donnell, and her daughter, Lucy, played by Bev Coyne, Arthur threatens foreclosure. Dick Perkins, Nellie's true love, played by Al Blatter, goes to the wicked city to earn the money to repay the mortgage. When he returns, he finds that his parents, played by Charlotte Sandve and Jim Swanson, have driven Nellie from their home. Everyone sets out in search for her, and she is finally found just as Arthur starts to kill her in the saw mill. Arthur is shot, Nelly is saved, and all ends happily.

MRS. McTHING

Mrs. McThing is a play that tells the story of a witch who brings punishment to the wealthy La Rue family because Mimi, Mrs. Mc Thing's daughter, is not allowed to play with Howie La Rue. Howie, played both by Richard Lodge and Ian Stirrat, is sent to a hash-house where a gang of crooks—Virgil, played by Jim Pierce; Dirty Joe, played by Chuck Kock; Stinker, played by Bob Hindes; and Poison Eddy Shellenbach, played by Jim Wallace—hang out. Mrs. La Rue, played by Ann Richardson, is also sent to the "restaurant" to clean for the chef, played by Mark Hinshaw. Here she meets Mimi, played by Penny Eskew, and likes her. Thus Mimi is invited to live with the La Rues, and as she says goodbye to her mother, Mrs. Mc Thing, the witch changes from an ugly woman, played by Sue La Roche, to a beautiful lady, played by Judy Hinds. Other actors in the cast were: Eileen Parkin, Roxanne Russell, Betty McClure, Sydney Jackson, Carol Anderson, Bill Banks, Nancy Conner, Joan Kasch, Fred Teutenberg, and Bud Welz.
Angel Street

Angel Street is an English mystery play which reveals the deceptions employed by a husband, Mr. Manningham, played by Bud Welz, in trying to drive his wife insane. Mrs. Manningham, played by Marjorie Morse, is on the brink of believing she has gone mad when Inspector Rough, played by Jim Swanson, shows her how she is being tricked. The Inspector's real purpose in helping her is to find evidence with which to convict Mr. Manningham of a murder committed fifteen years previously. This murder, committed for some precious rubies, occurred in the Manningham's present house. Never having found the jewels, Mr. Manningham had come back to search for them. After many narrow escapes, and with the aid of the two maids, played by Dotty Drake and Sydney Jackson, the evidence is found and Mr. Manningham is captured.
The cheerleaders under the capable leadership of Anne Klasing as their captain did a splendid job in instilling spirit and enthusiasm in the crowd at all the football and basketball games. They introduced several new cheers which included: "V - I", "Hey There . . . .", and "Give Me a 'W'". They also revised the "Locomotive" yell and gave Webster a new victory and a new welcome cheer.

One of the obligations which the cheerleaders have is the decorating of the goal posts before every home football game. Before the well-known Turkey Day game the Webster Cheerleaders gave a breakfast for the Kirkwood cheerleaders. Afterwards both groups of cheerleaders hurried to the field to decorate the goal posts.

The cheerleading squad was chosen in a different manner this year. A screening committee of seven members eliminated all but twenty of the eligible junior and senior candidates. Then from these twenty the entire student body elected eight to serve as the cheerleaders. The committee members were: the Dean of Students, two cheerleaders from other schools, the three senior members of the Guidance Council, and the captain of the Webster cheerleaders.

The National Forensic League is a fraternity which promotes interest in public speaking. To become a member of this honorary organization, one must take part in speech activities and earn twenty N. F. L. points. These points are evaluated by the N. F. L. society in Ripon, Wisconsin.

"Federal Aid to Education" was the topic debated at all the meets this year. Among the outstanding features for the N. F. L. members were the speech meets at Springfield and Washington University and the regional student congress held at Webster in January. The members also enjoyed the N. F. L. alum tea at Christmas and a party at the close of the year.
The Webster Echo sported a new look this year. Not only was a new name plate designed, but the quality of the paper on which it was printed was changed from the conventional enameled book type to newsprint. The lower cost of the paper enabled the staff to publish ten issues during the year.

Although The Webster Echo met most of its expenses through advertising, it also netted a profit from the sale of pens and from the Paper Doll Prom, held in October.

Amid all this work, however, the staff found time to enjoy a Christmas party and a spring banquet.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society which was founded by George H. Gallup, the famous public opinion expert. The name of the Webster Groves High School Chapter is Joseph Pulitzer. This name was chosen in honor of the founder of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

To become a member of Quill and Scroll, a student must fulfill these four requirements: he must have done outstanding work in some field of journalism; he must rank in the upper third of his class; he must be recommended by a supervisor of journalism in his high school; and he must be approved by a national officer.

Many new features appeared in The Echo this year. For the first time since the yearbook was originally published in 1911, the senior pictures were arranged in alphabetical order. Most of the formal pictures were taken at night in Roberts Gymnasium. Informal pictures representing the main activities of each club appeared by the group pictures of every organization.

The work involved in producing the annual is divided into five departments, each supervised by the editor. It is also the editor's duty to determine the layout of the book, to plan the opening sections, and to assemble everything into a complete unit. The literary staff is in charge of all written materials; the features staff is in charge of all informal pictures; the business staff is in charge of all finances; the advertising staff is in charge of all advertisements; and the circulation staff is in charge of all sales and distributions.

In order to raise the money necessary for publishing the annual, the Echo Staff operated the bookstore, sold candy and Turkey Day buttons, and sponsored the bowling pin booth at the Dance Carnival.

The three main social events enjoyed by the staff members were the Christmas Party, the Echo Coronation and Dance, and the banquet held in late May. Mr. Settle, Sponsor.

A Cappella Choir began the year with its annual evening of skits and singing, held this year in the Pennell’s backyard. The ninety-voice choir soon found that it was involved in a full schedule of performances for P.T.A.s, service clubs, and other organizations such as the Masons, the Rotarians, and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

At Christmas the traditional Vesper services were presented for the public. This year the annual alum sing, which is always held after the final Vesper performance, was followed by a supper prepared and served by mothers of the choir members.

During the early spring, the A Cappella Choir presented a musical revue, and later it was honored by being invited to sing at the National Music Educator’s Conference.

The Beginning Choir opened its year with an informal gathering in the fall. At this “get-acquainted” party skits were presented.

The choir met every other day, and under the direction of Miss Esther Replogle practiced earnestly to learn to blend their voices and to work as a group.

Vespers is the main project of Beginning Choir. In this program their hard work and many hours of rehearsal were well rewarded; their songs were filled with beauty, warmth, and feeling.

In addition to singing in Vespers, the Beginning Choir performed throughout the year at various grade schools. They also helped the A Cappella Choir present Curtain Time.
The beautiful Christmas Vespers program was presented this year for the nineteenth consecutive season. Four performances were given: two on December the seventeenth for the public and two on December the twenty-second for the high school students.

The music for this sacred service was presented by the A Cappella Choir, the Beginning Choir, the Boy Choir, and the Angel Chorus. In addition to those providing the music, over forty members of the student body participated in the pageantry, being either in the cast or on the stage crew.

Since 1932, when a sacred program was presented by the high school glee club, the service has developed into one which has a great deal of meaning not only to the people of Webster Groves but also to those of many surrounding communities.
This year the A Cappella Choir presented Curtain Time. It was a musical revue of scenes from the hit shows of Rodgers and Hammerstein, Gilbert and Sullivan, and many others.

Some of the production numbers it presented were: "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" and "There Is Nothing Like a Dame" from South Pacific; "June Is Busting Out All Over" and "This Was A Real Nice Clambake" from Carousel; "My Mother's Wedding Day" and "McConnachy Square" from Brigadoon; "I'm In Love With Miss Logan" from New Faces; and "Pilgrims Chorus" from Sweethearts.

The beginning choir took part in the show with its presentation of songs and dances from H.M.S. Pinafore and Babes In Toyland. A group of fourth grade students from Avery also performed the "Clip-Clop Chorus" from Red Mill.

The second half of the program was a concert given by the A Cappella Choir.

This year marked the reorganization of the French Club, which had been discontinued after the 1954 season. Meetings were held every third Wednesday of the month. Any person who had completed one half year of French and had maintained a "C" average in this course was eligible for membership.

The outstanding things to be remembered by all French Club members this year were the Twelfth Night party; a visit to the Art Museum; a trip to Ste. Genevieve, the oldest French town in Missouri; and the French Club booth at the Dance Carnival, a representation of a French cafe where doughnuts were made before the buyer’s eyes.

The Senior School Junior Red Cross volunteered to perform many charitable services in the Webster Groves community. The money collected in all the senior school homerooms by the Junior Red Cross membership drive was used for such worth-while projects as the holding of parties at the Kirkwood Old Folks' Home and at Edgewood Children's Home.

With a bake sale the organization financed the school chest, which is sent overseas. Other service activities of the Junior Red Cross included repairing toys for the Webster Groves Toy Shop at Christmas and helping with the Bloodmobile in November and January.

The library assistants are essential to the many functions of the school library system. Because of the assistants' time and work, the librarians have more time to help students find materials.

This year, for their own enjoyment, the assistants gave their annual Christmas party. Once a month the group held regular meetings where library problems were discussed. At the end of the year each assistant was given a book by Miss Bynum to show her appreciation for the fine work each had done.

The Office Assistants are one of the most important service groups in the school. The assistants do filing, distribute absentee lists, pick up attendance cards from the homerooms, answer the telephone, deliver messages to students, and run errands.

In order to work for Mrs. Estelle Howard, the attendance officer, an office assistant must first have a good academic standing and then be willing to devote a study hall period to work in the high school office.

Mr. Winton has seven assistants working for him. There are about ninety-five organizations whose financial accounts are kept here in school. Since Mr. Winton must keep all these individual accounts straight, his assistants are kept very busy helping him. Most of their work is concerned with accounting and bookkeeping. Each month they prepare a typewritten statement showing the deposits and withdrawals of every organization. The office assistants who work with Mr. Winton must have had one year of typing or one year of bookkeeping.
This past year marked the first complete year of the Commercial Club, which has grown from the original thirteen charter members of 1955 to the present membership of forty. Its meetings were held the first and third Wednesday of every month.

The purpose of the organization is to become better acquainted with the methods used in operating a business. This is accomplished by tasks which members perform for the teachers, such as typing, taking dictation, and running errands.

The field trip to Monsanto Chemical Company in March and the awards banquet in May highlighted the year.
Riding every Wednesday at Valley Mount Ranch was the strenuous proposed schedule for the Riding Club this year. In addition to mere pleasure riding, the members entered classes in which they learned drills such as keeping control of their horses, jumping, and mounting and dismounting at a run.

Learning more about riding techniques and the care of horses was the chief purpose of this organization. Any person who had ridden with the club three times was eligible for membership.

A horseshow in which the riders took part in different games, races, and drills was the highlight of the year.

Cooperative Occupational Education

The "co-op" plan is an educational program which provides the student with an opportunity to learn about the occupation of his choice while he is still in school and which gives him some first hand experience in that occupation. A few of the principal advantages of this course are the providing of occupational training under actual working conditions, the furnishing of both general and vocational education, and the presenting of an opportunity to develop one's interests and aptitudes.

In order that a student may become eligible for "co-op" training, he must be at least sixteen years of age and must be selected individually on the basis of his own interests, desires, and qualifications for his chosen occupation. Each student is required to take a minimum of three subjects other than the "co-op" course, which is taught by Mr. Gordon Trotter.

The school day lasts until 12:30 p.m. for the average "co-op" student, at which time he leaves to go to his place of employment. Some of the occupations which are the most popular with the students in this program are clerking, printing, baking, shoe repairing, and floral work.

The Sophomore Pep Club, whose purpose is to promote better school spirit toward sophomore sports, owes much of its success to its sponsor, Mrs. Hiller. The enthusiasm of the crowd this year was greatly increased by the school spirit of this group of students. Early in the fall the sophomore class chose eight cheerleaders: Jo Adams, Julia Bodman, Jeannie McCarron, Alice Ogle, Carol Peukert, Jane Rogers, Sue Woods, and Marge Yates. These girls headed the Pep Club and led the cheers at all B team games.

To raise money for a picnic in the spring, the Pep Club sponsored the coat check at the Dance Carnival. After a highly successful year the chief desire of the members was to continue a pep club through their junior and senior years.

Freshman Pep Club

Miller, Stork, Janssen, Beaman, Hofer, Thorpe, Schwieder, Dickens, Long, Werthmuller, Branch, Tosnges, Richardt, Franz.

The purpose of the Freshman Pep Club is to promote more support for the C team games. Eight freshmen cheerleaders were elected by their classmates to add spirit and pep to these games. In order to qualify for cheerleading, each girl had to pass a screening test given by various faculty members to determine the candidate's ability. Because of the Pep Club and the cheerleaders, the crowds at all C team games were made larger.

In order to increase attendance at away games, the Pep Club provided buses to transport the ardent fans.

The Pep Club's meetings were held irregularly this year, since all business depended on the games which the C teams played.

All the Webster Hi Y and Tri Hi Y clubs are organized with the purpose of fostering Christian ideals and beliefs among their members. This purpose is carried out through the YMCA motto: clean speech, clean scholarship, clean sportsmanship, and clean living.

Each group met once a week to plan its activities and projects for the year. Some of the projects which the Hi Y's and Tri Hi Y's engaged in were the raising of money to contribute to national and local charities, the inviting of various speakers to talk about travel, vocations, and the armed services, and the holding of dances and parties for their own entertainment. All the groups were willing to contribute their services to any worth-while cause in the St. Louis area.

The Buzz Book this year outsold any previous edition. The project was complicated by the listing of students in both junior high schools in the Webster Groves school district. In respect for the Hixson Junior High School colors, the book was available in scarlet and gray as well as in the traditional orange and black. The profit from the sale of the Buzz Book was divided among the senior Tri Hi Y and Hi Y groups.

The Friendship Dance was unusual this year in two respects. It was the first dance ever to be held in the cafeteria under Roberts Gymnasium, and a profit, which was shared by the Webster and Kirkwood Hi Y clubs, was made on the dance for the first time in its history.

Volunteer workers from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades helped in the junior library during their lunch hour, before and after school, and during their study periods. These students checked books in and out, put returned books back on the shelves, and helped prepare new books in the fall and spring.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Grace, the students sold bookmarks to raise money for the junior library. This money was used to buy plastic book covers for the new books.

The assistants, besides working, enjoyed themselves at two parties, one at Christmas time and the other at the end of the year.
The Junior School Junior Red Cross, sponsored by Miss Grace, taught the students to appreciate the needs of others. The representatives of the organization were elected by their classmates in each homeroom. They began their year with the annual membership drive in October. This drive enabled all the students to become a part of the Junior Red Cross.

The primary project of the year was the filling of boxes to send overseas at Christmas time. These boxes contained such articles as clothing, soap, washcloths, pencils, and other items which we take for granted, but which are luxuries in certain war-stricken foreign countries.

Athletics
During the 1955 season, the football squad maintained a record of three wins and six losses. From nearly fifty sophomore, junior, and senior boys who tried out, the team was selected during the first part of September by coaches Ray Moss and Leonard Bryant.

Returning to the gridiron from last year’s undefeated team were Fox, Ford, Alt, Mudd, Ferry, Link, Everett, Viehmann, Hopkins, Pemberton, and Auten. The rest of the squad consisted primarily of juniors, with the exception of two starting seniors who had not played last year — Jerry Wolff and Eddie Earnhardt.

Although this year’s record was spotted with defeats, the team hustled continually and practiced hard for the Turkey Day game. Often a spotlight was used so that the team could continue practice after dark. Although Webster was defeated in the Turkey Day game, the game was well-fought by both sides.

Mr. Yate's men started the season by winning their first four games. After dropping their fifth contest, the Statesmen entered the Normandy Christmas Tournament. Having won their first game in this tournament, the Statesmen lost a one-point thriller to Kirkwood.

After losing three of their first four league games, the boys entered the Suburban League Tournament. Because of its four and five record, Webster was not considered a contender in the tournament. But the boys didn't care to be the "underdogs," and proved that they weren't by whipping all their foes, including Maplewood, to win the tourney for the fourth straight year. From the tournament to the final game of the season the Statesmen did not drop a game, winning fourteen in a row.

The season was closed at the State Tournament. There the team got off to a fine start by beating De Soto, but was stopped in the second game by Beaumont, who later became the state champions.
The 1955-1956 wrestling team had a successful eight-and-five season. The team placed third in the State Meet, with blue ribbons being won by: senior Jim Auten, heavyweight; junior Mickey Stewart, one twenty-seven; and senior Ellsworth Schellenberg, one twenty. Sophomore Jim Bryan and senior Jim Parrish took third in their weight classes—one forty-five and one thirty-three, respectively. Junior Dave Hicks placed fourth in the one seventy-five class.

Ellsworth Schellenberg and Jim Auten were the outstanding grapplers on the team. Both men were undefeated—Ellsworth won all fourteen, while Jim one thirteen and tied one. Schellenberg was elected captain by his team mates at the close of the season.

Coach Froebel Gaines again led his baseball team to a very successful fourteen-and-four season in 1955. The squad ran up a total of one hundred thirty-eight runs, while allowing their opponents only sixty-eight.

The returning lettermen on the squad were: catcher Hank Kuhlmann; pitchers Jerry Wolff and Larry Marshall; shortstop Marshall Whitecotton; third baseman Dave Fox; and outfielders Charles James, Joe Heimlicher, Blaine Link, and Dick Hopkins. Ron Thalmann was the first freshman to ever secure a starting berth on a varsity squad. Charles James was elected captain at the end of the season.
The 1955 Webster Groves golf team, coached by Tyke Yates, breezed through fourteen dual matches to run their record to seventy-four consecutive wins in five years.

In the thirty-eight years that the Girls Athletic Association has been at Webster High, it has developed into one of the largest organizations in the school. The main purpose of this club is to increase interest and participation in girls' sports.

When any girl has received one hundred points in intramural sports, she is eligible for membership. To retain her membership she must earn fifty points each semester, pay her dues, and attend G. A. A. meetings.

The main activities of the G. A. A. during the year included Dad's Night, the Kampus King Dance, and the annual Awards Banquet.

Hockey

During the past twenty-eight years hockey has proved to be a popular sport at Webster. Sophomore, junior, and senior class teams were chosen from the many girls who participated in intramural hockey. From the members of these class teams, a varsity team was chosen by the coach, Miss Dorothy Daniel. This varsity team played two games, one with Clayton and the other with Maplewood. They were also scheduled to play Bayless and Kirkwood, but these games were cancelled because of bad weather.

Hockey is a game which requires physical endurance, good coordination, quick thinking, and exact timing. As in all sports at Webster, a co-operative spirit, team play, and good sportsmanship are stressed.

Basketball

Again basketball was a very popular sport with the girls. Four intramural games were played by each team, and at the close of these games the class teams were chosen. These teams competed against Clayton, University City, and Bayless.

The annual St. Louis County Sports Day is a day on which teams from the surrounding area come to participate in basketball. It was to have been held at Webster this year, but due to a heavy snowfall it was cancelled. Unfortunately, a few other games were also cancelled because of inclement weather.

A basketball player needs vitality and practice to be a good team member. The girls spent long hours co-ordinating plays and improving their skills in order to meet the stiff competition of other schools.

Volleyball

The 1955 varsity volleyball team won two of the four games which it played. Its opponents in these games were Kirkwood, Ladue, Ritenour, and Brentwood. As in past years the varsity team was chosen from the best players of the sophomore, junior, and senior class teams. These class teams were selected from all the girls who played intramural volleyball.

The class teams played Ladue, Ritenour, and Maplewood. The seniors won all of their games; the juniors and sophomores each won two out of three.

Since few special skills are required in volleyball, many girls look forward to the season with hope of making a class or varsity team. As in past years special emphasis was placed on effective serving and spiking.

Softball

Again in 1955, a large number of girls participated in softball. Each intramural team played four games after school. From the members of these teams, the sophomore, junior, and senior class teams were chosen. Immediately following the end of class team play, the varsity squad was selected from the girls who had shown outstanding ability on class teams.

Both class and varsity teams displayed much enthusiasm in the games which they played against Ladue, Maplewood, and Kirkwood.

The skills required for a good softball player include a keen eye for batting, a strong arm for pitching, and a light foot for running.
