Dedication
to
Mr. Settle

"I would applaud thee to the very echo, that should applaud again."

Shakespeare

It is not solely the eighteen people on THE ECHO staff, but also the eighteen hundred students who attended Webster this year, who truly dedicate the 1965 yearbook to Mr. Settle. We are sure that the multitude of students who have worked with Mr. Settle throughout the years past would join us in this dedication. In his thirty-four years at Webster he has devoted his time and effort to the student body. Advising the Student Council and yearbook staff as well as teaching mathematics, he has created high standards of responsibility and honor to be met by every student. We of Webster Groves High School wish him sincere happiness in all future endeavors.

The longest, tallest Texan.
Ruedi Albonico, Webster's American Field Service student from St. Gallen, Switzerland, has become an outstanding Statesman through his excellent academic accomplishments and his enthusiastic participation in school activities. In the German-speaking section of his homeland, his classes in school included French, Italian, physics, biology, and geography. Ruedi speaks five languages and takes Spanish and English here at Webster. American history, chemistry, and band form the rest of his schedule.

Ruedi enjoys many different sports—mountain climbing, skiing, and swimming. He plays the flute and is part of Webster's Marching Band. Through the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, he goes to Curby, a church in downtown St. Louis. There he provides recreation for underprivileged children in the area once a week. Ruedi is a member of the German Club, the Student Council, Junior Achievement Program, and the Senior Fortnightly.

Turkey Day 1964 commemorates the 25th year that Mr. Moss has coached the Statesmen and the 50th meeting of Webster and Kirkwood in the annual Turkey Day Game.

Thanks to head coach, Mr. Moss, backfield coach, Mr. Hoffman, and line coach, Mr. Jones, the 1964 Varsity Football Team closed its season with a 6–0–1 league record and a 7–1–1 overall record. After ten years, Webster Groves was the Big 10 Champions of the Suburban League and ended fourth in the area poll.

The Statesmen varsity basketball squad gave Coach Yates a memorable farewell present by sweeping the Regional Championship. Previous victory in the Webster Groves Invitational Tournament brought a Post-Dispatch mid-season rating of tenth in the area.

After winning the tournament championship, the Statesmen ended the season tied for third place in the Suburban Big Ten League. The twelve win-ten loss standings wrote an excellent record for 1964-1965.

Mr. Yates retired at the end of the season after twenty years as varsity coach. While directing the Statesmen, he projected the name of Webster Groves as a basketball power within the Big Ten. His overall record was 351 wins and 151 losses.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors found their days numbered with intramural games and coaching sessions which finally ended when the class teams were chosen. The junior teams held the best record with a 3—1 standing. All teams played the schools of Normandy, Maplewood, and Kirkwood. On Saturday, February 13, the three class teams were hosts to the annual Basketball Sports Day in which juniors and sophomores were victorious.

The varsity squad, chosen from the class teams, fought hard during the season. Although beginning with a victory, the squad failed to win others. 1964-65 brought the addition of a game with Nerinx Hall which will probably become a tradition.
Girls Athletic Association

G.A.A. plans three major events each year. In November the Dads are invited to enjoy a box supper and later join in square dancing. Spring brings around the Kampus King Dance where five jacks, nominated by G.A.A. members, reign. At the dance one is crowned king. To end the year the mothers take their turn at a banquet for the installation of new officers and the awarding of letters and cups. From hockey season, through the basketball, volleyball, badminton, and softwall season, G.A.A. members find plenty to do.

Volleyball

A ball echoes as it is volleyed against a wall. Girls cheer as they participate in intramural and coaching programs. By March all of the volleyball class teams are chosen. The season continues until the end of April. Maplewood, U City, Brentwood, and Kirkwood met our three class teams in interschool matches. The best players were chosen for the varsity team. The players learn how to play on a full court which extends the length of a basketball court.

Those girls who are specifically interested in officiating or those who just want to earn points take on the jobs of refereeing, timing, and scoring. Only officially rated referees are used at varsity games.

ACTIVITIES
Now look here, Bub!
A striking page layout takes shape under the pen of a staff artist . . . A group discusses plans for the program of the Coronation Ball . . . Two girls struggle over a copy-writing assignment . . . Others return from successful solicitation of advertising through the Webster School District area . . . This is room 201, sixth hour. The busy staff of The Echo is composed of seniors, chosen in the spring of their junior year. They must be versatile enough to put the entire yearbook together under the indispensable direction of Mr. Settle. At work, between sips of coke and bites of candy, the staff is able not only to put out a yearbook, but also to operate the book store and ice cream machine. Other money-making projects include the sale of Turkey Day buttons, cokes, and candy at the football games.

Publishing The Echo makes for an all-year effort. But there’s fun involved too, including a Christmas party and a Staff Banquet in the spring. The 1964-1965 staff sincerely hopes that The Echo will remain for you a symbol of all the fond memories of your years at Webster.
Delegates from the Branch YMCA High School Clubs attended the convention at Hanley School December 12. Of the 10th, 11th, and 12th graders for the Youth Convention, for Jim McDonald, state Reading Clerk spano was elected. Arms of the Webster candidates rand in secret, and Cherry Blume and Blumain. Bill Ward was delegation leader. As the officers are the eastern part of the school, no candidate was running for them. In attending, attending people, political convention, by the dominating spirit by the candidates in the program attended the Model. The lights in the cafeterias were very encouraged to see and the kids were and they were to give the school to work on Hoffman's. The best officer in the program was announced. The decoration, and the Board of the building. The decoration was inspired by the familiar carol "Twelve Days of Christmas." The staff meeting was held December 23. Two new staff positions were announced at the annual Spring Banquet.
The J-Class of 1965 is composed of juniors and seniors, most of whom are aspiring to staff positions on the Webster Echo and to membership in the International Quill and Scroll Society. The class studies writing, lay-out, and all the aspects concerned with publishing a newspaper. With the guidance of Mrs. Coleman and the paper staff, they prepare for the responsibilities of publishing next year's paper. In April the students are selected and assigned to their staff positions for the coming year and are placed in charge of the production of the last issue.

Aside from covering their own news beats and writing news stories, the J-students contributed to the success of the Paper Doll Prom, and the publication of Turkey Day Programs. They also had a part in the winning first place honors at the MIPA convention in Columbia, and in the winning of second place honors in the journalism competition held at Washington University.
The purpose of the Lettermen's club is to promote athletics with good sportsmanship and school spirit throughout the student body. It is composed of all boys who have earned a varsity letter in Webster's extensive sports program.

Organized only last year, the club has already become active in school affairs. The Lettermen acted as ushers for Vespers, the WIL basketball game, and the choir's spring program as well as selling refreshments during basketball halftimes. Their social activities included a spring banquet and a party at the end of the year.

A new addition to the organization is the Varsity Letter Commission, made up of two seniors, one junior, one sophomore, and the two advisers. This group deals with members who violate the Lettermen's Code.

The membership of the club was about fifty.

A traditional and informal get-together, a hootenanny held in a member's back yard, enabled both old and new members to become acquainted.

Learning several new songs and reviewing old favorites, the choir presented its first program for the Warson Woods PTA. Both as a whole and in small groups, choir members sang at hospitals, hotels, and for civic groups to raise money for the Christmas Carol Association. Choir alums attended a party following the Vesper Service and also participated in the Fun Assembly, highlighted by the arrival of Santa and his reindeer.

After Christmas vacation the choir returned to hard work in order to present a rewarding and successful spring program.

The night before graduation, the choir met for the last time to sing informally where both parents and choir alums joined in the singing, fun, and sadness combined in this last get-together.
Beginning Choir began its busy school year with an informal get-together at Pat Scrivener's house where various groups performed skits for the entertainment of the entire choir. This traditional event enables each new choir member to become better acquainted with the others.

Miss Replogle met with the choir in 117 every other day and introduced them to the mechanics of breath control, proper diction, and sight reading. By November the choir found itself deep in the pages of "Vigil" and other famous Christmas carols. Many weeks of long, hard practices culminated in the Vesper Service.

With the beginning of the second semester and the arrival of spring, the choir directed its interest toward A Cappella spring program hoping for a chance to play a small part.

The end of the 1965 school year brought them closer to gaining the prestige of A Cappella choir membership.

Vespers

Vespers, a thirty-three year old tradition at Webster Groves High School, was held once again this December. The high school auditorium was transformed into a church by over two hundred students under the direction of Miss Replogle. Religious hymns were sung by the A Cappella, Beginning, and Boys Choirs, while many Biblical characters were depicted by members of the cast. Behind the scenes were the stage crew, the light crew, the prop managers, and many others who helped make the service a success.
Webster's stage band, better known as the Webster Groves High School Dance Band, is directed by Mr. Lemcke.

In March our band entered the Stage Band Festival competition at Ladue High School. The Dance Band played at church suppers, dances at Webster's junior high school, and other stage band contests. This fall the band played at the Pep Breakfast before the Turkey Day game. The main purpose of the Dance Band is to help train Webster's young musicians to play dance music well.
If a melodious note struck your ear during fourth hour, chances are it was the strains of a cello, violin, or flute floating up from the Little Theater. This was the orchestra hard at work. In the fall the musicians spent their time in preparation for the traditional Christmas program. After the holiday season they were rehearsing once again for their spring activities. These functions included taking part in the Suburban Music Festival and also playing in their annual spring concert held at Hixson Junior High. The ambitious strings also represented Webster at the county-wide Solo Ensemble Festival.

1965 marked the fortieth season of performances by the Webster Groves Marching Statesmen Band. The band is composed of eight sections—clarinets, flutes, saxophones, trumpets, trombones, baritones, tubas, and drums. Accented by the drum major, Bob Drake, the five color guards, and the three majorettes, the Marching Statesmen, under the direction of Mr. Lemcke, demonstrated their precision marching and musical skills in six halftime shows this year.
Symphonic Band

The Symphonic Band, directed by Mr. Henry J. Lemcke, and supervised by Mr. Anthony Carosello, consists of selected school musicians.

Band members sold chocolate candy to raise money for trips and uniforms. A dance and dinner were held for those people who sold their quota. In the spring the tenth annual "Pops" Concert was given; and the year was brought to a close by playing for the June Graduation of the Class of 1965.

Twice each month the Spanish Club held meetings with the assistance of co-sponsors, Mr. Cano and Mr. Hampel. The purpose of the club is to learn more about Spanish speaking nations, to improve fluency with the language, and to enjoy good fellowship. The club's activities included entertainment by Mr. Cano, slides of Latin America, a Spanish movie, and the ever faithful bingo games. The Spanish Club was fortunate to have entertained the Mexican friends of Mr. Cano and eighteen year old Luis Razo. Luis, visiting the United States from Taxco, Mexico, was a house guest of Mr. Hampel. Highlights of the year were a dinner held at a Spanish restaurant and the annual Christmas party.
French Club

Varied events and activities were included in the year’s calendar of the French Club, sponsored by Mrs. Koons. The fall program was highlighted by a showing of slides taken by a group of students who ventured to France last summer under the direction of Mrs. Blackburn. In addition, the club sponsored a booth at the Fall Festival where French pastry was sold. Joining in the festivity of the Christmas season, the club demonstrated how Christmas is celebrated in France. The members danced and sang to typical French tunes, and French pastries and drinks were served. A chocolate yule log pastry, or “une buche de Noel”, was made for the party from the recipe of Miss Laguette, Webster’s exchange teacher from Lyon, France. Guy Armstrong held the post of editor of a new French newspaper that was begun under the supervision of Miss Laguette. A special Christmas edition was published which contained holiday customs, songs, and cartoons.

The Latin Club is one of the largest and most active clubs at Webster. Under the guidance of Miss Farmer, it holds meetings once a month presenting speakers and slides. In the spring one of the meetings is devoted to the annual Cataline debate. A mock Cataline is judged by members of the club and is sentenced to either the death penalty or life imprisonment for attempting to overthrow the Roman government. The decision differs from year to year.

Members take a collection in the Caesar, Cicero, and Virgil classes to purchase a gift for the orphanage at Farmington, Missouri. At the Christmas party Santa made his appearance and ten cent gifts were exchanged. Members attended the State Convention of the Junior Classical League, held in Columbia, Missouri. The social highlight of the year was the annual banquet held in the spring. After an enjoyable dinner, various classes presented skits with a classical flavor.
The Latinus Rumor, sponsored by Miss Farmer, is issued once a month by students taking Latin. Under the direction of editors, Chris Carney and Kathy Vining, the staff publishes the paper. Each month a column is written about the patron God of that month, and there are articles from exchanges of Latin newspapers. Other material includes the Roman celebration of Thanksgiving and Christmas, Latin cartoons and jokes, and Latin crossword puzzles.

At the annual Junior Classical League Chris and Kathy directed a workshop in the art of publishing a Latin paper.

German Club

The German Club, directed by Miss Fiehler, set aside Wednesdays for its meeting days. Conversational practice by means of a film strip was available to members and their guests. The Webster YMCA invited the club to attend the travelog, "The Undiscovered Charm of Germany". In the Fall Festival the club had a booth at which German beer steins were given as prizes. At the Christmas party Reudi Albonico and other guests discussed how the holiday season is celebrated in Switzerland and Germany.

To further international understanding, club members exchanged letters with students in East and West Germany and Switzerland.

Math Club

“Now here’s an easy one—and solve it for ‘c’: $-17x + y' - rst = bh”’. Student in Math Club, the Webster chapter of Mu Alpha Theta, met for two meetings a month. These meetings consisted of lectures by someone in the St. Louis area whose profession deals with math, or by members of the club. Tutoring service were provided for high school and junior high students. Seniors who have maintained a “B” math average are eligible for membership. 1965 marks the completion of the fifth successful year for the club.

The Skating Club, sponsored by Mr. Rountree, completed a successful year. At Webster's Fall Festival the club's booth proved to be one of the most profitable. Gifts left over were donated to needy orphans.

Activities included a barbecue and many parties. An award was given to the student who had contributed the greatest time and effort to the club's projects. Skating sessions were held at Steinberg Rink on alternating Saturdays and on public ponds when the weather was cold enough.
Once a month, with the help of Mrs. Koons, over sixty students meet to devise and carry out plans to make life more enjoyable for the people in hospitals throughout the city. Since members of the American Junior Red Cross were elected by their classmates, every homeroom had a representative. Most of the meetings were characterized by the snipping of scissors and sudden bursts of laughter as the major project of the year was to assemble scrapbooks of jokes and cartoons. These scrapbooks were distributed to hospitals in the St. Louis area, and they brought relaxation and happiness to convalescing patients.
The Light Crew devoted much of its school time to set up and operate the necessary lighting effects for the school assemblies. After school many hours were spent in preparing for school shows and community activities such as Kiwanis Kapers, the Symphony concerts, Vespers, the Modern Dance program, and the choir’s spring program.
A.V.O. is one of Webster's service clubs. The audio visual operators are responsible for the excellent sound we have at assemblies and the management of movie projectors and other equipment used in the class rooms. The club is composed of volunteers whose services are of great importance in helping educate and entertain Webster students.
Programs sponsored during the year for various community clubs included the Optimists' Club Speaking Contest, two after-school forums which dealt with satire on American life as revealed by comic strips, and a book analysis. Two school assemblies, an illustrated biology lecture by Dr. Brandin and the reading and analysis of poetry by Mr. Stevens, were given. A third assembly was the Presidential assembly in which Johnson and Goldwater girls sang in repartee after which Frank Bubb spoke in favor of Goldwater and Brent Stromberg spoke for Johnson.

The topic for the debate season was: "Resolved: That nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization." The tournament at Webster was an innovation in that the judges and debaters met to discuss the basis for the decisions. These oral critiques enabled the participants to ask questions and better understand the decisions. Webster placed second in their first extemporaneous speaking meet and placed first in the extemporary meet at St. Louis University High. Webster entered in debate, extemporaneous speaking, public speaking, and radio speaking in the state tournament at Hazelwood.
The Future Teachers of America club is composed of thirty-five members. The two meetings held each month featured special speakers such as Mrs. Buena Stolberg and Dr. William Moore. A tea was given to celebrate the club's tenth anniversary. Club members gave an Easter party for underprivileged children. On February 17 the members were special guests at the annual classroom teacher's Recruitment Dinner held at Hixson Junior High. Suzanne Hetsell was elected president of the state association and Leslie McCain was voted in as treasurer. The F.T.A. Senior Award was given to Nancy Williams.
The theme for the Youth For Christ club, a non-denominational organization, is "Teens reaching teens in a Decade of Destiny". The purpose of the club is to reach teen-agers with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to help Christian teens live the Christian life.

The club met Wednesday mornings under the leadership of president, Dick Webb, and vice presidents, Nancy Kress, Sue Ruenpohl, and Karen Thorn. Programs included singing, skits, and Bible devotions. Several outstanding speakers, including Stephen B. Stephens of KXOK, spoke to the club. The Y.F.C. also sponsored a booth at the Fall Festival.

Through the club guidance inspiration and fellowship have been the keynotes of an inspiring year.
The purpose of Future Nurses of America is to help its members decide which branch of nursing they would like to enter professionally. The girls visited different hospitals and listened to lectures on subjects such as physical therapy, public health, and the duties of a laboratory technician. Mrs. Lake, the school nurse, sponsors the club and allows its members to help her in the clinic.

Potpourri

Potpourri (po' poo' re'; pot' poor' i)—a medley or mixture. The school's literary magazine, Potpourri, is just that; a mixture,—a mixture of poetry, essays, short stories, art work, cartoons, and photography. All interested students may submit their creative efforts to the Potpourri staff who then chooses the best material and publishes it. Under the direction of Mrs. Coleman the staff published three issues instead of the usual two. Money to help pay for the project was raised by selling cakes at the Fall Festival.

Library Assistants

Lamm, Crowell, Brownlee, Guhman, Michaelson
Farmer, Wilson, Brown, Werkmeister, Lanier

The student librarians are an indispensable part of Webster's library. They perform their many varied duties before and after school and during their free periods. They must check books in and out, prepare new volumes for the shelves, collect fines, and run many errands. In this way, they acquire library skills, besides having a lot of fun.

The librarians were faced with the big obstacle of construction work this year. In spite of constant hammering and the demand for reorganization, the students did an excellent job in keeping the library running smoothly and efficiently.
The office assistants, under the direction of Mrs. Bopp, should be greatly appreciated for their assistance in the operation of an efficient communications system in the high school. Among their many duties were the delivering of daily bulletins, messages, or request slips which might be sent out during the day. An office assistant must have a C academic average, or better, a daily study hall, and a trustworthy and responsible character.

The assistants are a tremendous asset to Mrs. Bopp, but they receive no tangible reward; however, they gain great satisfaction from giving their help, and they also acquire experience for a summer job in the modern business world.
The Joseph Pulitzer chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for high school journalists, was established at Webster High more than thirty-five years ago. The chapter was given its charter within a year after the Quill and Scroll was organized. The chapter is named in honor of Joseph Pulitzer, the late editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A member of the chapter must be a junior or senior in the upper third of his class. He must show superior work in the field of writing, editing, or business management. He must be recommended by the supervisor of his journalist work, and approved by the national Executive Secretary of the society.

This year eight members from the Webster Echo staff and eleven members from The Echo Staff were formally initiated.

Once upon a time we played football and buckets and became the champs in our neighborhood. The girls played dress-up and pretended to be beautiful queens and ladies of honor. The four bad boys came to make us bad too, but the white angel, SLADE, carried us through the year, just barely, and we lived happily ever after.
