The 1983 Seniors in The Music Man were all stars in their own way.

Mr. Hutchison and the backstage crew kept the scenery moving.
Cheerleaders, football players, alumni, faculty, and the student body all gathered together in Robert's Gym on the morning before Turkey Day for the annual Pep Assembly. It is held each year to boost the pep of the students before the game the next day.

The day began with a pep breakfast given to the football players by the varsity cheerleaders and continued on with songs played by the band and spirited cheers and routines performed by the pom-poms and cheerleaders. The morning climaxed when the seniors took the floor for the traditional senior line dance, this year done to the tunes of "Do Wa Ditty" and "Shake It up." Chants of "senior women '83" and "Statesmen spirit" echoed through the halls of the assembly ended.

The day was topped off with the bonfire held later on that evening. The football players were introduced and the cheerleaders fired up the crowd with more cheers in hopes of winning the game the next day. A visit from four Webster men dressed as Kirkwood cheerleaders surprised and entertained the crowd, while Webster football players tried to carry them away.

The fire was lit and Kirk E. Wood burned to a cinder. Cheers of excitement chanted on through the night as the last bit of the fire burned to the ground, heating another year of spirit for the annual rivalry.
Bon-Fire
Turkey Day '82

Although the conditions of this year’s annual Turkey Day Game were much improved over last year’s game but the somewhat fatal results remained the same. Unfortunately this year’s game which was held at Moss Field did not prove to be in Webster’s favor. The Kirkwood Pioneers were the first to score in the game with 3 minutes left in the first quarter of play to gain a 7-0 lead over the Statesmen. Spirits were dampened a bit but the Statesmen played on. Then in the second quarter an 85 yard pass was thrown by junior Quarterback Keith Jones and recieved by Senior Wide reciever Dannie Hunt to make the only touchdown the Statesmen would make during the whole game. The extra point was kicked by Sophomore Bryan Cambell.

With the score even, both teams returned to the field for the second half of the game. Both teams were ready to give it their best shot. The clock ticked on however, and by the end of the third quarter Kirkwood’s Quarterback had scored what turned out to be their winning touchdown with a sweep down the right side of the field.

"Kirkwood’s defense was tough, but so was our offense," stated Senior lineman Chris Drier, "We should have won the game but we just couldn’t get the ball going.”

The game ended with a Pioneer victory of 14-7 and the loss of the Frisco Bell for another year.
Is it possible for tradition at Webster Groves High School to be broken? This year the senior women did just that by beating the juniors in the annual powder puff game by a score of 21-0.

For the last six years the juniors have won the powder puff game, but this year with the help of Mallary Smallwood, Valerie Nelson and Mary Kelly who each scored a touch down in the first half, the seniors came out victorious.

"Even though we lost," said junior Julie Stepanek, "we still had a good time playing".

Once again this year Webster and Kirkwood students buried the hatchet for the annual Friendship Dance, this year held in Kirkwood High School's cafeteria.

The dance which is usually held the weekend after Turkey Day, was held at an earlier date because of Kirkwood's hopes to attend the state finals in football.

Seven maids were chosen by different organizations to represent the school at the dance. They were as follows: Krista Reay; S.S.C, Valerie Nelson; Varsity Cheerleaders, Terri Malone and Carla Burks; Varsity Football Players, Laura Smith; Band, Monica McIntosh; Pom-poms, and Carmen Cooper; S.A.A.

The night climaxed as maid Terri Malone was crowned the 1982 Friendship Queen by the reigning queen Mary Ann Calhoun. Following the crowning the six maids and the queen danced in a spotlight dance with their escorts.
4,428 was the winning total for this year's annual canned food drive for the needy. To encourage student participation, the drive was a competition between first-hour classes. George Bruecker's class has captured the prize every year the competition has been in existence. This year, the closest contender was Mr. Holm's class with a total of 3,258 cans.

CLUB & ORGANIZATIONS CLUB & ORGANIZATIONS CLUBS &
DECA

How would you like to go to work during school hours and get paid for it? That's what the kids in DECA did this year.

What is DECA? DECA is the Distributing Education Club of America. It is the only student organization operating through the nation's schools to attract individuals to careers in merchandising and management.

There were four classes this year, but only two were released to go to their training stations. The students earned one full credit towards their requirements, one-half unit for the class, and one-half unit for the job. Students in D.E.C.A. were only allowed to work in Marketing and Distributive Education. Sponsor Dennis Kruze hopes that "the experience of Distributive Education will develop future business leaders in America."

Art Club

Art Club

Did you ever wonder who decorated the halls of Webster High with those artistic masterpieces? The Art Club, of course.

The club, under the direction of Mrs. Marilynne Bradley, painted murals, entered and attended art competitions, participated in the National Art Honors Society, took a trip to Jefferson City, and created a display for Youth Art Month. The club was open to anyone showing interest. "I enjoy promoting the Arts," said Bradley.

This year's members had a lot to say about their art club. "I enjoy art a lot; it's the only way I can express myself," said Eric Hall. "It means a great deal to me", commented Miriam Kronberg, "to be able to be around all these talented people." "The Art Club offers a lot of good opportunities to people who wish to express themselves outside of the regular art classes; the people are fun, and it's nice to be with people with similar interests," said Michelle Lavar.

Seniors Kim VanNatta and Jane Otto have a different view. "It's fun, it's a way to leave my mark on the school wall." "It's legitimate excuse for writing on walls and defacing school property." An after thought from LaVar, "Art is like good energy, like art, man, it's my life, totally."

The Student Legislative Board, better known as the SLB, was in charge of the SSC and the SLB elections this year.

The SLB also broke up into groups and evaluated the constitution. “All the matters that were to be changed were brought to the knowledge of the student body” said sponsor Mr. Horn.

"What, what what, what do you say we gotta beat em", yells AFS student Ian McNabb at a Webster football game.

Webster is hosting two AFS students this year, Ian McNabb from Australia and Torsti (To-To) Silvonen from Finland. The foreign exchange students are sponsored by the AFS club.

What is the AFS Club? The AFS (American Field Service) is a club "that supports and encourages awareness of foreign cultures," said sponsor Ms. Masson.

AFS had a pizza sale which provided a $500 scholarship for a W.G. student to go abroad with AFS. Bake sales and Christmas flowers were other fund raisers during the year.

International Day, in which five foreign exchange students hosted by area schools attended Webster classes was another fund raiser. The annual spaghetti supper was held that night. The highlight of the year was the short term exchange to Wisconsin in the Spring.
Karin Nystrom, ECHO photographer, waits her turn to confer with ECHO sponsor, Mrs. Krasniewski, for another visual report.
The Echo Newspaper, headed by sponsor Susan Krasniewski and co-editors Mary Kelly and Angela Wegman, strived to 'stay out of the red' by expanding ad sales and including fund raisers. This year's staff featured only five returnees from last year. All have at least some experience from either photography or journalism classes.

Krasniewski said, "the main goal of the newspaper was to win an all-american rating." Junior photographer, Karin Nystrom, added, "...this year's paper staff has a lot of talent and possibilities." "Using this talent is the hard part. Because most of us are new to the staff, just learning how to put it all together was a job in itself."

This year's staff includes: Page Editors, Amy Learn, Audrey Lingle, Terri Malone, Laurie Holling, Chris Sauer, Chas Terry, David Holt, Dirk DeYoung; Business Managers, Wendy Eckert, Deanna Iesburg; Photographers, Karin Nystrom, Tim Watkins; Sports Writers, Ben Alexander, Jim Eade, Bryan Hunt, David Kemp; and Turkey Day Program Editors; Chris Marshall and Mallary Smallwood.

How would you like to represent a foreign country, vote on various world issues, or debate on world resolutions? That's what students who belong to Webster High School's Model United Nations Club do throughout a given school year.

What exactly is the Model U.N.?

It is the largest student run club in the country, and although the club at the high school is sponsored by social-studies teacher Jim Muth, the club meets and is run solely by the students. "It really is a model U.N.,” stated The Legal Counselor of the club’s General Assembly, Ann Altobelli, “being that the club is run in a similar way to the real U.N., where delegates represent 172 countries, and debate on issues and topics which are written by the members themselves.” Approximately 17 Webster students belong to the club at present, but 17 other schools in the St. Louis area are also involved in the club.

The club meets during three sessions each year, approximately once a month, or whenever needed. The club at Webster is in its tenth year, but in recent years, the club's popularity has diminished. With this year's school sponsorship, the club's membership has increased.

"It's fun, and really educational,” replied Altobelli, "It's also a really great way to meet a lot of people from schools all over St. Louis.”
This year's Debate Club began the 1982-83 season with high hopes for the future. After winning numerous awards last year both individually and as a whole, the team was confident of another winning season.

To participate in the club each student was required to take debate as a class. In the class debating techniques were learned, and students before the actual tournaments, had the chance to practice their techniques.

The club used two kinds of debating techniques, the Lincoln-Douglas, where the topic stays the same for the whole season. This season's topic dealt with the circulating and selling of arms to other countries.

Sponsor Kay Wojak stated, "It was exciting to see the kids go out and do something well that might help them with future experiences." This year the club attended various tournaments throughout St. Louis and Kansas City.
Troop 191 is not a boy scout or a girl scout troop, but it is the Webster Groves High School Thespian Troop. The Thespians participate in the school musical. They also produce two or three drama productions of their own each year. Charles Jolls, President of the troop of Thespians states, "Having an affiliation with Thespians always means fun. Being in charge of Thespians is a commitment in retaining that fun." The vice-president of the Thespians is Miriam Kronberg, treasurer is Michelle LaVar, corresponding secretary is Pam Yelton, and recording secretary is Sue Rowe.

Webster Community Campus (WCC) is now in its twelfth year as a very unique opportunity for juniors and seniors to do volunteer work in their community.

Virtually offered any two hours of the day, the course is designed mainly for students who wish to pursue job interests and career choices.

Sponsored by Larry Shles and Kay Wojak, WCC also has many expectations. Weekly reports are due, which sum up the students learning experience of that particular week. Attendance records and reports from their bosses are all in their final grade.

Shles also has the opportunity to sponsor a special program designed to have students "... do what they couldn't in a classroom."

The class for 'gifted students' or Pegasus, helps students who may have a special interest in any given subject to really experience and research in as much detail as possible.

"The basic idea is to get the kids to make their own course," Shles said. "... they are asked to study in-depth a particular subject they are interested in." Students may obtain first hand information by sitting in during college classes at nearby campuses where they can ask professors any questions they might have.

During the course of the year students are expected to present what they have learned by putting together movies, books, speeches and presenting them to a given group.
Anyone that has ever attended a sports event at Webster, would be sure to notice one particular section that seemed to have the most spirit and fun. This group of people is known as the Varsity Club.

The 1982-83 Varsity Club played a large part in boosting everyone's spirit.

The main purpose of the club is to give positive support and encouragement to all school activities through good sportsmanship and acceptable behavior. According to sponsor, Mr. Robert Smith, they wanted to change their original format of a formal club, to a special section at the games which is open to everyone who wished to join. No formal meetings were held. Juniors, Matt Timmons and Mark Nelson were appointed to head the club because of their leadership in last years' activities.

Cheerleaders

Think it's easy being a cheerleader? Practice started fourth quarter last year for this year's varsity squad and continued all summer at 6:00 o'clock A.M. They practiced for football games, basketball games, home soccer games, home wrestling meets, and home cross-country meets. Besides cheering and practicing the cheerleaders had a dunking booth at Webster's carnival, a car wash, cheerleading clinic, rummage sale, and sold Pumpkin cards to raise money. Senior Co-captain Val Nelson expressed her viewpoint with, "Cheerleading takes up a lot of time and it's sometimes very frustrating being a captain, but in the long run the positive outweigh the negative and I'm glad I tried out."

The Webster Groves pom-pom squad have once again proved themselves to be a hard working, enthusiastic group of girls. Sponsored by Mrs. Joyce Waskow and Miss Diane Stromberg, they performed with the band at all home football games. First semester they practiced with the band fourth hour and after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays. When football season ended, they continued their practices and performed their routines at home basketball games.

The twenty-four girl squad was led by senior captains Kristen Stroup, Monica McIntosh, Suzanne Wallace, and junior captain, Meredith Goins. They choreographed all the routines for the football games. Suzanne Wallace commented, "that the spirit of the group was greatly improved this year". They sponsored many fund-raising events to make money for new sweaters and equipment.
"I really enjoy playing with the band on Friday nights at the football games," said senior Mike Lokensgard. "Practice is not too much fun but the results are what count."

"I love going to the football games, they're really rowdy, but people laugh at me when I wear my big orange hat," said junior Marielle Chenault.

Drum major Laura Smith plays clarinet in concert season and also plays lead alto saxophone in the jazz band. Last year she won an award at the jazz festival for her solo performance.

Drum major Carl Pandolphi has used his musical talents to write a song which placed him as a finalist in a song contest sponsored by Miller Highlight. Carl said, "I hope to stick with being a songwriter for as long as I can until I'm broke down."

The Marching Statesmen played on the river front in the fall, marched in the Bevo Day Parade, played at the Epworth Home, and also presented a halftime show at the Turkey-Day game.

The 1982 Varsity Football Statesmen
The Webster Statesmen football team finished the 1982 season with a respectable 6-3 record. The Statesmen started off on the right foot by beating Southwest 14-7 and Parkway Central 15-7. Webster took their first defeat at the hands of Suburban South Champs Parkway South, losing 18-14. As soon as the Statesmen were getting back their winning ways after beating Parkway North 31-0 and beating University City for the first time in three years 21-14, they took a tough overtime loss to S.L.U.H. The next week Webster was upset by Eureka 20-18 with a field goal late in the game. The Statesmen bounced back after those two tough losses, defeating Oakville 6-3 and Ladue 14-6.

The Statesmen defense was outstanding this year, holding the opposition to an average of 8.3 points per game. With outstanding players like Senior Linebacker Brett Bennett, Senior Cornerback Mickey Leonard, Junior Linebacker LeMonte Edwards, and Junior Safety Keith Saylor, Webster held their opponents in first and goal situations keeping Webster in the game.

The Statesmen, led by Junior Quarterback Keith Jones, outscored their opponents 2-1. Senior Runningback Kevin Lemmie led the team in rushing and had some dazzling runs including an opening kick-off return of 90 yards. With an injury to Senior Doug Biggs, Sophomore Bryan Cambell took over place kicking duties. Cambell made all of his extra point attempts, including a valuable kick in the Turkey Day game.
One of the better J.V. team squads in the last couple of years, this year's team was undefeated in their conference and had a final record of 8-1.

"All 34 players deserve special recognition, especially our offensive linemen, Dan Cotta, Rick Mitchell, Orlando McIntosh, Scott Pankoff, and Scott Yarbrough," said Coach Walter Smallwood; "This is the finest line we've had since the 1979 State Champs were Sophomores."

Backs included Brian Campbell, Kelly Powers and Corky Randle. Mike Eason and Keynon Marsh were exceptional as receivers. The defense didn't allow many points, those responsible for this were Mike Brown, Keith Sheppard, Corky Randle, Perri Johnson, Pete Alexander and Thomas Bond.

The most impressive aspect of this year's team was their ability to move around at different positions and fill-in spots as they were needed. Smallwood added, "...they were able to adjust game by game to injuries; meaning we have been able to change players around."

Continuing the tradition of outstanding Webster football teams, this year's freshman squad compiled an excellent 5-1 record.

Leading the team in scoring, Quintin Parker had seven touchdowns. Other notables on offense were Mark Pankoff and Johnny Thomas. The backfield was led by Aaron Sheppard, Byron Norman, Carl Banks and Quintin Parker. Outstanding players on defense were Edwin Coleman, Chris Ogden, and Clinton Williams.

Coach Don Mumm said, "at the beginning of the season the defense played a major part in our success. The Statesmen suffered a first-game loss to Kirkwood which could have hurt the team tremendously, but, '. . . changes in players positions and a better team attitude helped to turn the team around," Mumm said.

Girls Golf

This year's Girl's Golf team had their best season since they started five years ago. They have shown a steady improvement along the way. The year before last, the Stateswomen had no victories, and this past year they missed the state championship by only a few strokes!

With the strong playing of juniors Laurie Holling, Kelly Ball, Kris Stickney; sophomore Jill Riemer, and freshman Lynn Williams, the Stateswomen were able to take fourth place in state, missing third by only one point. At the state meet held October 25-26 at Columbia, Laurie Holling shot well enough to take 7th and Jill Riemer took 15th.

Webster also captured first place at the League Tournament and tied St. Joseph's Academy for 1st at the District Tournament. Individual medals went to Holling, 4th, and Riemer, 5th.

Out of Webster's top six, only one girl won't be returning next year. Thus, promising a good season next year and possible a perfect record.

VARSITY SOCCER

6-12-3
Although the Varsity Soccer Statesmen ended up with a somewhat disappointing season this year with a 6-12-3 record, the team still managed to produce several outstanding players.

The two high scorers of the season, senior halfback Paul Schroeder and the team's pick for "most valuable player" George Chopin, were selected as starters for this year's All Conference Team. Senior Neal Higginbotham and Sophomore Mike Stofer were also selected for the team. Seniors John Brueggemann who received the "most improved player" award, and Senior Joe Bante received honorable mention by the All Conference selectors. "As a whole the team didn't play well together we didn't get together or play with intensity until the last half of the season", stated Senior Joe Bante.

The team coached by Tom Holmes hopes to improve their game by next season, but with nine seniors leaving the team, they will have a tough fight.

B-Team Soccer

Far exceeding their reputation of the past few years, B-team soccer had a surprising season this year. Their record was 5-9, scoring a total of 46 goals. Jason Dwyer was awarded most valuable player because of the moral support he gave the team, and Freshman, Mike Ezell was named the most improved player. Coach Ron Tarsen commented, "Mike proved himself to be very dependable. He worked hard and set a good example for the other players." The outlook for next year seems to be very promising.

Varsity volleyball lacks wins, but gains winning attitude. The 1982 season ended with a 4-9 record, the best since Carl Stallings began coaching four years ago. Stallings said the players started building up their confidence in themselves this year. He also said that the losses in the first few years of coaching could have been because of his lack of experience in volleyball, but now Stallings says he knows enough to take a team to state if the girls work for it.

Two outstanding players made all state teams. Senior Sarah Crabtree made first suburban southwest league team and junior Cindy Ellis made the honorable mention team.

Michelle Stewart was also an exceptional and important player.

About his four years of coaching, Stallings said, "more times than not I wanted to quit, but now nothing could make me quit!"

Freshman Volleyball: The Freshman Volleyball team had a very disappointing season. The A-Team finished the season 1-9 and the B-Team finished 1-6-1. Coach Dottie Shippey said, "the kids were willing to work hard and I could see improvement at the end of the season." Shippey felt that the team would be better if they were taught more volleyball skills before reaching high school.

After her first season of coaching volleyball in ten years, Shippey said, "I enjoyed it. It's nice to come back to it."
Girls Varsity Basketball

"The varsity squad has improved since last year" said Ron Tarson coach of the girls varsity basketball team. The team took a fourth place in the suburban south tournament and a second place in the Kirkwood tournament. There were six returning seniors this year, co-captain Sarah Crabtree, Laura Dill, Sharon Myers, Angela Wegman, Clara Svaglic, and Cavett Washington.

"We're a lot better than last year because we're working more as a team this year," commented senior Sharon Myers. "Everyone is putting an effort toward the team this year."

The most consistent players this year were co-captain Sarah Crabtree and co-captain Cindy Ellis. Cindy was the high scorer in most of the games. The varsity squad also had help from Sophomores Kelly Redmond and Evelyn Simpson who played on both the varsity team and the Sophomore team throughout the season and occasionally started on the varsity team.
"The Junior Varsity girls basketball team is gaining a lot of experience this year by practicing with the varsity team," commented coach Ron Tarson.

While all of the girls turned in a good performance during the season sophomores Kelly Redmond and Evelyn Simpson were two of the teams outstanding players. Both of the girls started on the varsity and the J.V. squads through out the season.

During the year the J.V. squad worked on improving their skills while the freshman team, which is made up of 14 players, concentrated on gaining some experience. The freshman girls basketball team had a lot of help from team members Kim Mann and Jackie Perez who were probably the main reason for the success of this years team. The squad had a 2-3 record halfway through the season despite their lack of experience.

"I think what really hurt us this year was the lack of self confidence" explained freshman Amy Eckert.
Freshmen Girls Basketball

Inconsistency was the word for the 1982-83 Boy's Varsity Basketball team. "The defense is ahead of the offense," according to Coach Kruse, and "offensively we're looking for consistency," added Kruse. The Varsity team was headed off offensively by Senior Centerforward Bill Entrikin and Junior Guard Keith Jones. Bill Entrikin was the only returning starter for this year.

"I think we've got a good team, we've lost a few games. We lost by two points to University City. I think we could have beaten them," said Senior Guard Joey King.

Due to lack of experience and precision the Basketball Statesmen came away from the Vianney Tournament with a disappointing 4th place. But came back at the middle of the season by winning the Suburban South Tournament.*

Bill Entrikin summed up the season with, "it gradually got better, we kind of jelled together." "I think next year we'll be a dominant team in the area," Kruse predicted.

*The complete season record is in the Spring supplement.
Boy's J.V. Basketball

This year's Sophomore basketball team played an exceptional season. The team managed victories over good teams such as Oakville and Mehlville, while having an easier time beating some of the lesser teams. These wins included a 71-14 victory over South County Tech., and a 61-24 victory over Parkway North. Many of the Sophomore games were won and lost in the last few seconds; University City was one of those games when Webster failed to score in the final drive and were defeated 40-42.

The Statesmen coming off a 9-1 record their freshman season, made their main goal this year to take first in their league. With the loss of Mike Eason, who was moved to the Varsity squad, Coach Jerry Stepro brought up two freshman. Sam Ivy led the team in scoring despite a mid-season injury, and Chris Ogden added height to the team. Along with Benton Johns, Ogden contributed in rebounding. Sophomores Steve Hannigan and LeBryan Harris also helped in the scoring department.

"Hard workouts, working as a team, and our strong determination reflected on our play," said Hannigan. That it did; the Statesmen lost only one conference game and took first in their league.

Boy's Freshmen Basketball

This year's Freshmen boys basketball squad played an impressive season finishing with a 9-6 record. Webster also captured a second place in their own tournament and placed fourth in the Suburban South tournament. Wins this season came over tough teams including Ridgewood, Seckman, Crestview, and Oakville. One of the games this year was against a tough Crestview team. Both teams played very good games, with Webster emerging triumphant with a 43-40 victory.

Webster took one of their defeats in a very close game against University City. Although Webster lost, this might have been their best game of the season. Many of the Statesmen's games were close this year making for a very exciting season.

A large turnout for the team this year gave coach Larry Dutcher a large selection to choose an exceptional team. Out of forty or more boys, Dutcher kept only thirteen. These included Carl Banks who led the team in scoring and was also an exceptional rebounder. Helping out in the rebounding department was Matt Housewright; Barry Nelson, Quinton Parker, and Matt Buss added their shooting skills. Jeff Beckly, David Peacock, Alfred Robinson, Clarence Meriwether, William Calvin, Steve Haneman, and Edwin Coleman added their time and hard work.

The hard work and team play added to making a good season. The experience gained this year promises a good future for the Statesmen basketball program and a possible state contender in the next few seasons.
Wrestling Statesmen

Coach Stallings, Vernard Perry.

Pete Reed, Keith Saylor, Eric Whinery.

Larry Mrzek, Phillip Erwin.

Within the last three seasons, the varsity wrestling Statesmen have enjoyed fine records and even a few State Champs.

“We had a lot of individual standouts who would lose only one, if any, match during the course of a season,” said Coach Carl Stallings. “... but this year’s team is more balanced dual meet team.

Only two seniors, Robert Johnson and Ras Jones, were featured on this year’s squad.

Juniors and Sophomores returning to action were Steve Shumate, Keith Saylor, John Walker, Pat McCormack, Lary Mazeck, David Bloemke, John Itcshner, Peter Reed, Scott Yarborough, and Scott Stewart.

Varsity experience gained by the underclassmen could mean a very good team next season. This year’s team has only 13 members, some of whom have never wrestled before. Recent decline in team membership might be attributed to “... misconceptions of the workouts as a whole. Some people think we starve ourselves for a week to drop into a lower weight class and still have to do 1,500 jumping jacks or 2,400 sit-ups; we do try to keep trim, but never to the point of starvation,” said Coach Stallings.

“The workouts may be tougher than most other sports workouts, but then, the rewards are greater too. In football a running back may be tackled by three different men, but wrestling is a one-on-one situation,” he said.

Tony Roberts, Roggie Rusan, Pat McCormack, Ras Jones.

For the first year in Webster’s history, the 1982-83 Varsity Hockey Statesmen with a record of 11-6, skated their way to a victorious first place position, and a chance to play in the Mid-States Hockey Association’s playoffs. After a gruelling first game against the Lindbergh Flyers, however, the team lost and ended up in the second place position.

“I think we should have done a lot better during the first part of the season,” stated senior co-captain Doug Biggs, “But near the end we realized we were blowing our chances, so we worked hard and pulled together a pretty good season.”

Although the team will lose several outstanding senior players next season, like Seniors Joe Bante and Jay Ferrara, a team of hard working players will be left to carry on the winning tradition. Several assets to this years team proved to be the younger players. Sophomores Dave Spring, and Scott Pankoff, helped to win many games. Sophomore Robbie Stewart also did an excellent job as goalie.

Others include Juniors Ben Alexander, and Jim Taylor, and Freshman Mark Pankoff.

"We are trying to make our Senior year the best ever", states member Linda Patterson, "that's what Senior Student Service Council (SSC) is all about." Although the class of '83 started out poorly their ninth and tenth grade years, they pulled out of their financial difficulties during their Junior year by selling pumpkin cards and mowing lawns for various Webster residents.

This year raising money was not the main goal for S.S.C. Planning various activities and working hard on the Turkey day program, proved to be the highlight of the year.

Turkey Day mums were sold by the members, along with the buttons. This year's slogan on the Senior ribbons was, "AWESOME ORANGE." The Senior Line Dance was choreographed to the song "Do Wah Ditty" which made the days activities complete.

This year’s junior S.S.C pulled off another enterprising year with an overwhelming response by students and many new money making ideas.

This year’s main money makers included bake sales, stadium clean ups, pennant sales during home football games, and serving refreshments at home basketball games. Plans also included a dance around Valentines Day, and a movie at the end of January.

The over anxious group split up during Turkey Day and worked on posters and signs representing the whole junior class.

"The response to this year’s S.S.C was good because students were given more chances to attend each meeting," stated class sponsor Jim Shapleigh, "and it seems like the kids really want their class to be something special."

New ideas and new challenges make up the concept of this year's sophomore and junior SSC's.

Since the freshmen and sophomores were basically new to the school, they decided to run their system of government differently than the other SSC's.

Instead of electing individual class officers to run SSC, the students worked as a whole to achieve goals they set for this year.

The sophomore's major activity for this year was the planning and organization of the Turkey Day pep assembly.

"The freshmen's plans also included Turkey Day", stated Mr. Rubin, one of the class sponsors, "Each of the twenty-four members broke up into separate committees to complete posters and class signs."

Both SSC's mowed lawns and sold candy to raise money for future activities.

Do You Remember When ...
Do you remember ...
When we played with Barbies and G.I. Joes and jumped when we saw the popsicle man coming down the street. When we used our fingers to paint magical things like lollipop trees and birds that looked like Vs.
Do you remember ...
When we sold lemonade and mud pies on the corner and turned our rooms into forts, or caves, or castles.
Can you remember jumping into the water on the first day of swimming lessons as a tadpole and finishing as a shark. We all thought we were so neat when we first learned to ride our big "two-wheeler"!
Do you remember ...
Playing little league baseball and forming secret clubs with "No Girls Allowed" sign always on the door. Peanut butter and jelly was our favorite food then, and Mr. Patches was our favorite show.
