In 1969, there was a new principal at Webster Groves High School, the first in 37 years without Mr. Howard Latta. Mr. Gerald E. Kusler assumed the position of Principal. It was a year of change. In 1996, there was a new Principal. The first woman Principal of Webster Groves High School: Ms. Patricia Voss. Webster Groves School District had celebrated its 100th anniversary. The second hundred years had begun. There were 2012 students here. Today there are 1300. There are still 350,000 bricks, 610 windows, 500 stair steps, 80 classrooms, 15 restrooms, and over a mile of hallway. In 1996, there have been renovations and changes to the building, but we still revolve around knowledge, tradition, and friendship. There were several teachers still at Webster in 1996 who were on staff in 1969.

History of Webster Groves High School

1868: Andrew Jackson was President of the United States. Victoria was Queen of England. People began to think about the educational needs of their children. And so, on August 25, at the Missouri Pacific Railroad Station, at 1/2 after 7:00, a mass meeting of the interested citizens of Webster Groves was held. They decided to organize a six-director school district.

The high school, originally just a ninth grade course of a somewhat unorganized nature, was established. The year was 1889. The class occupied the first floor of what is now Bristol School. Miss Sarah Milligan was the first high school teacher. In 1905, the school expanded to the Branson Building, where classes were conducted over a butcher shop.

By 1906, the high school was built at the present site on Selma Avenue. It was a two story building with three classrooms and an auditorium that doubled as a study hall. The faculty was made up of six teachers and the principal, who also taught six classes daily.

During Mr. J.T. Hixson's term as principal, the building changed greatly. After World War I, the Armory was known as the Webster Groves High School Gymnasium and housed the lunchroom and senior gym. This building was razed in 1946 for the present Robert's Gym. A continual expansion program has added band and choral rooms, art rooms, and business department. Over 50 classrooms have been added to the original building.

Mr. Howard A. Latta began in the school system as an assistant principal in 1931. In 1943 he succeeded Mr. Hixson and continued as principal until 1968.

1903: Webster officially adopted Orange and Black as the school colors.

1933: The Thanksgiving Day rivalry between Kirkwood and Webster was first called "Turkey Day."
Webster, Alma Mater,
Unto thee with joy
We give our hearts and hands.

Striving for thy glory,
we will go and fight,
Obeying thy commands.

Strength thy banner leads us,
Victory sure attends us,
Hail then, Hail to thee --
Webster, Orange and Black.

Webster, Alma Mater
Praises we sing thee o'er and o'er.
Fealty now we pledge thee,
Loyalty, forevermore!

People are so close-minded that they don't see other people's point of view.

STAR
With the assistance of the Webster Groves Police and Fire Departments and County Paramedics, both Mobile and Aerial, a Crash Simulation was executed in front of the high school so that students can view the results of driving under the influence of alcohol. Several high school students act out the parts of crash victims. The simulation is concluded with one of the victims being airlifted away from the school site. This year Brett Buresch got to ride in the helicopter.

JAZZ I

The Tenth Annual
MU Jazz Festival 1996

Webster Jazz I is the top jazz band at WGHS and membership is obtained through audition. The band won a number of honors during the 1995-96 school year including FIRST PLACE at Parkway Central High School where most of the top high school jazz bands within the St. Louis Metro Area competed including: Parkway West, St. Charles West, Parkway South, Lafayette, Marquette, and Northwest at House Springs. This kicked off the contest season with a bang and much pride and expectation was aroused. Several students won the International Association of Jazz Educator’s Citation Award for the jazz improvisation and musicianship including Don Reynolds on piano. Ben Kopeti and Jamie Levinson on drums, Andy Schwartz, bass trombone, and audition for the St. Louis All-Suburban “Honors” Jazz Band and Don Reynolds was selected for the “Outstanding” soloist award at Mizzou on February 24. Don Reynolds was also named to the 1994 Indiana All-State Jazz Band as well as the 1995 Missouri All-State Jazz Band. Exciting musical selections included “Crusin’ For A Bluesin’” made famous by Maynard Ferguson, “What’s New” made famous by Clifford Brown, “North Shore Morning” by Matt Harris and “Garton’s Brigade” by Dennis De Blasio. Jazz I was also featured at Jazz At The Bistro on February 18 and hosted their 9th Annual Webster Jazz Festival on April 23. The band also performed on all the dates and places mentioned for Webster Jazz III.
Webster Jazz II is a select group of musicians who audition for membership. 1996 proved to be an exiting year for Webster Jazz II as they won the First Place Trophy on February 3 at Parkway Central High School and also the First Place Trophy at SMSU in Springfield on February 24 competing against eight bands from all over the State of Missouri. This was the second straight year Webster Jazz II won First Place at SMSU. The band also performed at Jazz At The Bristo on February 18 as well as all the dates and places mentioned for Webster Jazz III.
Webster Jazz III was comprised mainly of the 9th graders just beginning their high school jazz experience. However, several 10th graders were willing to help fill out the necessary instrumentation thus enabling Webster Jazz III to participate in a number of events including: February 8 - 2nd Annual Winter Jazz Showcase, February 10 - 10th Annual Mizzou Jazz Festival, February 24-Southwest Missouri State University Jazz Festival, March 16 - Mineral Area Community College Festival, March 23- Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Jazz Festival, April 23-9th Annual Webster Jazz Festival, May 11- 2nd Annual Lions Barbeque at Old Orchard, and May 21-2nd Annual Webster Spring Jazz Showcase.
Symphonic Band is Directed by Mr. Dane Williams.
